"German Syrup"

For Coughs & Colds.

John F. Jones, Edmon, Tex., writes: "I have used German Syrup for the past six years, for Sore Throat, Cough, Colds, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best."

B. W. Baldwin, Carnesville, Tenn., writes: "I have used your German Syrup in my family, and find it the best medicine I ever tried for coughs and colds. I recommend it to everyone for these troubles."

R. Schmalhausen, Druggist, of Charleston, Ill., writes: "After trying scores of prescriptions and preparations I had on my files and shelves, without relief for a very severe cold, which had settled on my lungs, I tried your German Syrup. It gave me immediate relief and a permanent cure."

Wakefield Parish S. S. Convention.

Lower Wakefield, Oct. 12, 1891.

The 10th session of the Wakefield Parish S. S. Convention was held in the school house here to-day. The attendance was very good although several of the Sunday school in the parish were not represented.

On the walls of the room there were charts of the "Life of Our Lord," "Old Testament countries," "Old Testament Books," "The History in the Bible," "From Adam to Moses," and a map of the Parish of Wakefield, on which was shown The Field of our work as it at present exists, the places where Sunday Schools are established, and the vacant places where such schools should be established.

The President took the chair at 3 o'clock p. m. and conducted a devotional service, after which the convention was formally opened with a short speech from the president.

The minutes of the last session of the convention were read and approved.

Reports from schools were made as follows:—

Wakefield, Baptist, by the supt. R. Alexander.

Lindsay, Union, by the Supt. R. Briggs.

Waterbury Methodist by J. T. Fletcher.

Union by W. J. Davis.

Victoria Corner F. C. Baptist by G. W. Boyer.

Victoria Corner Ref. Baptist by Sanford Shaw.

Roadside Union, by the Supt. H. B. Cowan.

South Wakefield, Union, by the Secretary Mrs. W. Brittain.

As a whole the reports showed the work in the several schools to be in a fairly prosperous condition—in some there were very satisfactory evidences of excellent work being done, in others there was a lack of sufficient interest and enthusiasm in the work to make it eminently successful.

An interesting conference on S. S. work followed, in which the following elements in the work, to aid in making it successful were strongly emphasized:—

a. Individual work by the members of the school.

b. Strict adherence to the Bible in the school.

c. Punctuality in attendance by both officers and teachers of the school.

d. Thorough home study of the lessons.

e. Constantly working out the central idea of "bringing the children to Jesus".

f. Missionary work in connection with the school.

J. T. Fletcher gave an address on Normal Training for the senior members of the school, in which training a more thorough study of the Bible, its geography, chronology and history will be received to aid in the preparation and study of the lessons, he especially rejoined in all clean work a careful study of the life of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Robert Briggs invited the convention to hold its next session, (this autumn) at Lindsay. On motion, the invitation was unanimously accepted.

J. T. Fletcher, G. W. Boyer and Nathaniel Shaw were appointed a committee to arrange for the evening session.

On motion the convention adjourned to meet again at 7 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session was opened with singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and a prayer by Rev. C. Omben.

The minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

Addresses on Sunday School work were delivered by the president, G. W. Boyer, Robert Briggs, John Brittain, Nathaniel Shaw, R. Alexander, Rev. C. Omben, and J. T. Fletcher.

A vote of thanks was tendered the people of South Wakefield for their kindness and hospitality to the delegates and visitors attending this convention.

Miss Eddy presided at the organ at both sessions, and aided very much in the work of making them interesting. The convention as a whole was decidedly interesting to those engaged in S. S. work. Throughout the session there was felt a sense of solemn and sweet devotion to the promotion of God's work through the opportunities afforded by the influence arising from the Sunday School institution.

J. T. FLETCHER, Secretary.

The Foresters.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:

I saw an article in the last week's Sentinel called "Trouble among the Foresters." The writer is not a Forester, and therefore is not very good authority on Forestry, although he may know all about the Company he works for. He may think that the proper way to get applications for his Company is to run down all others. When a man wants to join the Foresters we try and show him the benefits of the order, and say nothing about the old line companies. True it is that the salary of the Supreme Chief Ranger has been increased, but the most of his time has to be given to the order, and even then the salary does not amount by some thousands of dollars to that paid to some of the presidents of the old line companies. $12,000 or $15,000 is a rather small sum, and the I. O. G. T. do not pay their chief officer $9,000, but only $500. During the last two years the salaries paid the Foresters, with the rest of mankind, a rise of no less than 50 per cent. were paid for an aggregate period of 11,655 years. Influenza—another form of the grippe—put 63 men on the sick list; and when it is taken into consideration that the Foresters pay for sickness as well as accident it is not wonder that the sick benefit fund should run low. 1210 members were laid up 27,940 days from injury; there was paid out in sick claims and funeral benefits the sum of $92,830, leaving a deficit of nearly $25,000, and the small amount of 10 per cent. per member is added to make up the deficiency. The sick benefit is $3 for two weeks, and $5 per week for ten weeks additional, making twelve weeks in all. It is intended to return to the $5 per week next year. Mr. Old Line is making great cry for little work. Yours truly,

J. A. LINDSAY.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:

I was very sorry to notice in the last issue of your valuable paper, under the heading of "Trouble among the Foresters" that you said there was likely to be serious trouble, if not revolt, among the Foresters.

Now, Messrs. Editors, where you got such information I am not prepared to say, but this I will say who ever told you such was an individual who knows very little about our order of Foresters, as I can assure you there is no cause of dissatisfaction among the Foresters whatever. It is in reply to this, at the Supreme Court meeting, held at Detroit a few weeks ago, they voted to increase our Supreme Chief's salary from $4,000 to $5,000 per annum. Now, in reply to this, I must say that our membership was only 15,000 when he received $4,000; at the time this advance was voted we had a membership of over 31,000. In other words, it is far easier for us to pay Dr. Omben $5,000 than it was to pay our membership $4,000. Now, if you know that, and you know that the Foresters are not a body of men who are paid $50 cts. per year into a fund which is used to pay officers salaries, &c. Also you spoke of incrementation of beneficial members' assessment; in reply, allow me to say that our sick and funeral benefit fund has always been run at cost, and during the last year so many have been sick we have been obliged to increase the assessment per member 10 cts. per month for a short time only. However, if you will take the trouble to look over our rates in our sick and funeral benefit list, you will find our rate to be only about one-third that of the other insurance companies. Besides we have the benefit of ordinary sickness; members who are sick with fever, &c., receive their weekly benefit, just as members who have had a leg broken or an ankle sprained. I would also say that our rate of life insurance has not been increased whatever. Trusting you will give this letter space in your paper, as I am a subscriber, and that you will take back what you have written against our noble order.

I remain, Yours truly,

WILLIAM E. THURTELL, Treasurer of Court of Woodstock No. 103, I. O. F.

Hartland, Oct. 10, 1891.

P. S.—I wish to say that it is not compulsory for members to take the sick and do so.

The SENTINEL won't get angry with the above correspondence, although they have given it just cause for offence. Our young friends and Thistle have erred through ignorance of the facts, or else have adopted ingenious ways of securing some free advertising for their excellent institution through the valuable medium of this paper. The SENTINEL was under the impression that it knew something of the matter, and entertained a very high regard for the principles and purposes of Forestry and like benevolent institutions. And we may add, with all due deference to the mature judgment of our friends Lindsey and Thistle, whose favorable opinion of the SENTINEL greatly esteems, that our regard for and confidence in the Order of Foresters has been deepened and strengthened, by the evident earnestness and watchfulness existing among the membership over the management of affairs, as evidenced by the animated discussions, on the questions referred to, at the Supreme Court—an earnestness and watchfulness which once increase public confidence in the moral as well as financial standing of the Order. About the question of salary, or the change as regards benefits, our friends must argue with those questions; the statement was made that one, if not more, branches of the Order, had threatened secession. As a recorder of public events, the SENTINEL boiled these statements down to a space adapted for its columns and published them. This is all the SENTINEL has done; "only this and nothing more." Let's have peace.

That Quilt.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:

The quilt, advertised by the ladies of the F. C. B. sewing circle, has been called for by the ladies of the Carleton Sentinel, and found the quilt to be given to a man who never bought a ticket. The quilt was left at Mrs. Charles Byles's according to agreement. We would the ticket holders say give the quilt to the one holding the right ticket, or to one who had bought a ticket, or to a man who never bought one at all; or how far justified is a man who would take possession of an article belonging to another person. The person now holding the quilt is Wellington Craig; the quilt was drawn by Mrs. Aaron Craig. If there is no protection against such swindlers, why not have the parties flout for engaging in such unlawful matters.

G. A. DAVIS, Rockland, Carleton Co., Sept. 26, 1891.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel.

This is the story over the quilt, and under the quilt, that was sold by the Free Christian Baptist sewing circle by lottery; it has proved to be a fraud. The ticket that was drawn for the quilt was No. 22. A party bought a ticket for my little girl which ticket they said was No. 22; they demanded the quilt, but would not part in it to me. I bought a ticket, neither do any of my family belong to the Circle. It is now rumored that a man living in Lakeville has got a No. 22 ticket. If there is such a person, he will come to me and make a statement under oath before a magistrate that he honestly purchased the ticket, and will give him the quilt, independent of the sewing circle or any other party. I would sooner send the quilt to Sir Hector Langens than to let our little Larkin, Connolly & Co. have it. It is stated that the Larkin, Connolly & Co. are about to change their political view; they are even the Rep.

WELLINGTON CRAIG, Ashland, Sept. 27, 1891.

The Facts.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:—

At the election of Councilors held on the 13th inst., in the parish of Wilmet, Councilor Williams stated that the Canada Temperance Association had been in debt to the amount of $600.00. Below is a statement from the Secretary, which makes it plain. Now if Mr. Williams knows no more about the old business of our parish than he does of this, truly we have an able representative. Hoping this will find a place in the columns of your paper.
