"The Frost & Fanshawe Company added fresh laurels to those already won by their fine sendition of "An American Beauty" last evening at Tara II.ll. The drama being a very strong one, was nicely constructed and well balanced, the plot strikingly developed. The scene is laid in the South and the story is very well told of a young lady who marries against her father's wishes and afterwards hunte d wn her father s murderer. Mies Annie Kerr, as the beroine, Nina Fontleroy, was at times grand and her impersonation ideal and true to nature. The whole cast were equal to the requirements of the play. Mr. Fanshawe, as Morosco Jones, was pleasing and satisfactory in every particular. To night the a dual role, "Twin Brothers," and assuming several disguises Miss Annie Kerr plays
