ON HIS HONOR.

"Have you any cough syrup?" he asked of a druggist, when he had got his breath after a long fit of coughing.
"Yes, sir."
"How many kinds?"
"At least fifteen."
"Anything of your own make?"
"Yes, sir."
"Something you can warrant?"
"I can."
"Well, to be square and honest, what would you advise me to take for this cough?"
"Um! Well, if you put it on that ground, I recommend a bottle of Hacknomore, which is on sale everywhere.

Mr. Gilmour on the Bridge Question.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel:

As there is an immense amount of talk—sensible and senseless—about bridges at Woodstock, elsewhere and everywhere, we who take a deep interest in all matters sacred and secular—that affect the interests of the masses of the people, think we may as well have a hand in the pie too. We all know that there were $44,000 expended on repairs on the old Woodstock bridge, since it was built—a bridge that was a failure from the very beginning, and a bridge that at first was built chiefly for railroad purposes, and was afterwards abandoned by the R. R. Co. who built a new bridge. As that bridge was built in a mud hole, and the piers speedily gave way, leaving it in its present dilapidated condition, it was evident to every sensible man that it would have been the height of madness to expend any farther sums on what would have been useless repairs. This was patent to Mr. Ketchum and Mr. Blair and his Government. They knew that a bridge was absolutely necessary at Woodstock, and took the requisite steps to fix upon the best site, as to foundation for piers and the convenience of the public. The Government engineers surveyed the surroundings and fixed upon the best locality, according to their judgment, and their choice of locality has been cordially approved of by all competent judges—apart from the usual croaker bangers on Messrs. Blair and Ketchum deserve the thanks of our community for the entromission, and have them notwithstanding all the wretched makeshifts of these political detractors and opposition jumping jacks.

The people most interested in this bridge are the people of Northampton and Southampton, because they are partially isolated. They have no railroad. For 60 miles from Fredericton to Woodstock, there is no bridge—and that in one of the most fertile districts of Carleton County.

Against this new bridge at Woodstock we find an indignation meeting held at Hartland, a delectable "claoban" situated on the left bank of the St. John river, "opposite Joe Magee's." The records of said meeting remind one very much of the "res gestae" of the three "Tooley street tailors." At a meeting held to ventilate and discuss and consider in all their bearings certain important popular measures, these three knights of the goose so arranged matters as to carry everything before them. One was made chairman, another was appointed secretary, the third then rose to his feet, and sweeping his hand in fine old biegie style, north, south, east and west, exclaimed—Gentlemen, we are the people of England. At Hartland at indignation meeting aforesaid, one Esculapius said, "Gentlemen I am going to prescribe, and it is your duty to swallow the bolus. I can hold out no prospect of a bridge to the people of Hartland until the Blair Government is dethroned. Another Esculapius declared that his brother practitioner had been prescribing for the last six years, and all his prescriptions had been without avail. He had now better act on the vicarious principle and swallow his pills himself. With the exception of the dissent of three or four, who knew perfectly well that they had no chance whatever of getting any fraction of the $250,000 voted for repairing bridges and building new bridges at or near the old site the other gentlemen and boys present, amounting only to a mere handful were dead opposed to the expense of building a suitable bridge at Woodstock, but wanted to divide the money between Woodstock and Hartland. If the money is not expended at Woodstock it would go to some other county.

While a bridge at Hartland would be undoubtedly a great convenience to a few there are other places in the upper districts Carleton County on the St. John river, whose settlers are comparatively isolated, and where bridges are a greater sine qua non for all the interests of the community at large, than at Hartland. One of these places for example is Beechwood—a district about half way between Tobique and Florenceville The distance between these two places is about 40 miles, more or less, with no bridge throughout the entire range, and no R. R. on the western side of the stream The whole of that tract of land lying along the right bank of the St. John, and stretching back from the river to the American line, is one of the richest and the best populated in the county. Many of the settlers, such as Marshal Smith, farmer, manufacturer and general agent, Mr. Blackie, farmer Matthew Hutchison, etc., etc., do business on a large scale. Mr. Blackie each year ships from 25 to 30 car loads of country produce. The farms of these gentlemen with their magnificent flat ranges of luxuriant hay, surpass anything to be seen on the Hudson river, and the farmers are often at great trouble in getting their large grain returns across the river for rail way shipment. Such people we think have a much greater claim on Government for a bridge than those of that most favored district "opposite Joe Magee's."

Yours to command.

FREDERICTON TOPICS.

Sudden Death of Mrs John Richards—Presentation to Rev Dr. McLeod—An Enthusiastic Temperance Meeting—Induction Service at St Paul's Church—A Big Freshet—Bridge Carried away at Marysville—Ice Running out in January—Funeral of Mr. Israel Atherton—The Scott Act Cases against Coleman and Edwards to be Argued Again—The Election Petition against Dr. Colter—Briefs from the Celestial.

Fredericton, Jan. 6th., 1892.

Business is very dull.

The prospects for good skating are excellent.

The City schools and the Normal school resumed work on Monday.

Prof. Crocket of Morrin College has returned to Quebec.

Rev. J. C. McDevitt is recovering from la grippe.

Wesley Vanwart left on Monday for a business trip to England.

Mr. Welsh, of Glassville, was in town Tuesday.

Cyrus Burtt, N. B. Land Co's surveyor of lumber, is home from Mirimachi for a few days.

Mrs. Whittier, wife of Capt. Whittier, American Consul, died Sunday evening.

Ald. Estey is in Boston undergoing a second surgical operation for throat trouble.

The People's Bank has declared a half yearly dividend of four per cent.

James Hanlon, an employee of the Barker House, died on Saturday after one week's illness.

Rev. Mr. Gough, of Kingsclear was on New Year's night presented with a purse of $30.

Thursday, Feb. 18th. has been set for the trial of the Petition against Dr. Colter of Carleton Co.

Nelson Campbell left on Tuesday to visit J. B. Grieves of this city, who is dangerously ill in New York.

David Bailey, an employee of Estey's mill on Monday had his shoulder broken and was otherwise severely injured by a run away team.

H. Price Webber opens his week's engagement in the City Hall to-night in the celebrated military drama "British Born." Seats are selling rapidly.

At Prince William, on New Year's day Miss Anna F. Orewdson of that place and Robt. McWhinnie of Charlotte Co, were married by Rev. Gideon Swin.

The Chief Justice on Monday announced that the court was unable to give judgement in the C. T. Act cases against F. B. Coleman and J. A. Edwards on account of the illness of Judge Wetmore. The cases will have to be argued again.

A gospel temperance meeting will be held in the Temperance Hall on the third Sabbath in every month, commencing on the 17th. inst.

A. Gibson, J. B. Snowball, C. W. Weldon, E. Byron Winslow and Marshall Richey have been elected directors of the C. & E. Railway.

Mr. Israel Atherton, of whom mention was made in last week's SENTINEL as being dangerously ill, died on Thursday last. The funeral took place on New Year's day the remains being conveyed to the F. C. B. church, where service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. McLeod and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hartley. The body was interred in the rural cemetery above town, a large number attended the obsequies.

The temperance meeting in the Temperance Hall on New Year's night was a great success every available inch of the building being occupied. J. J. Weddall acted as chairman. After devotional exercises Rev. Mr. Weddall delivered an eloquent oration following which A. F. Randolph read a flattering address on behalf of the temperance people of Fredericton to the Rev. Dr. McLeod, expressing appreciation of his activity in the temperance work and requesting him to accept an accompanying purse of $300. Dr. McLeod who was much affected made a touching reply. Rev. Mr. Payson was recently presented with a purse of $125 in recognition of his services in ministering spiritually to the members of St. Paul's church during the absence of a pastor. The rev. gentleman on invitation left this morning for St. Francis to assist in Presbyterian work there and to hold meetings in the lumber camps.

Quite a number attended the induction services on last Wednesday evening when the Rev. Willard McDonald, formerly of Hampton, became pastor of S. Paul's church. A reception was held on the following evening in the Auld Kirk which was nicely decorated for the occasion. Several city ministers were present and made interesting addresses.

Mrs. John Richards was stricken with paralysis while attending a union meeting in S. Paul's church Monday evening and died the following morning. On the previous day Mrs. Richards was apparently in the best of health. She was the eldest daughter of the late Charles Long of this city. Her husband, two sons and a daughter survive her. The funeral takes place to-morrow.

The water the past few days has risen rapidly causing the ice in the Nashwaak and Nashwaaksis streams to run out. At Marysville the ice did considerable damage. Passengers on the train from Chatham on Monday were obliged to walk in to Marysville as the bridge was considered unsafe for the train to cross one end of the superstructure having been lifted from the pier. Passengers on the Canada Eastern are now transferred at the bridge from one train to the other. In the Nashwaaksis the run of ice brought with it booms and lumber of the boom company which had been placed there for the winter, in all, over 100,000 feet. A bridge that was in course of structure across the Nashwaaksis was carried bodily, abutments and all to the mouth of the stream The Marysville dam was also carried away with the freshet.

The largest sheet or pane of glass in the world is set in the front of a building on Vine street, Cincinnati, O. It was made in Marseilles, France, and measures 186 by 104 inches.

"German Syrup"
For Throat and Lungs
Hemorrhage Five Years.
"I have been ill for about five years, have had the best medical advice, and I took the first dose in some doubt. This resulted in a few hours easy sleep. There was no further hemorrhage till next day, when I had a slight attack which stopped almost immediately. By the third day all trace of blood had disappeared and I had recovered much strength. The fourth day I sat up in bed and ate my dinner, the first solid food for two months. Since that time I have gradually gotten better and am now able to move about the house. My death was daily expected and my recovery has been a great surprise to my friends and the doctor. There can be no doubt about the effect of German Syrup, as I had an attack just previous to its use. The only relief was after the first dose." J.R. LOUGHHEAD, Adelaide Australia.

Hon. John Costigan arrived here by the Temiscouta Railway, New Years Day. He went to Grand Falls yesterday.

The town schools opened Monday except the superior department, which begins Thursday.

Mr. Ross, of Malcolm & Ross, Railway contractors, has returned from Montreal.

The following are among the arrivals at the Hotel Herbert, last week: Hon. John Costigan, Ottawa; Louis C. Stearns, Caribou; Fred. A. Powers, R. L. Turney, F. L. Bradbury, Houlton; Leslie C. Cornish, Augusta; John Cutler, W. B. Ayer, Bangor; L. T. Jaudry, Moncton; T. A. Fisher, Fort Fairfield; R. D. Ross, St. Stephen; T. J. Carter, Andover.

Mr. Z. Garneau, Quebec, is in town and is stopping at the Royal.

Invitations are out for a grand ball at the Edmundston Hotel next Tuesday evening.

We understand that the new skating rink will be opened to the public, for the first time, this evening.

It is currently reported that a prominent young lumber merchant and an estimable young lady of this town will be married to-morrow evening.

T. Crockett, Supt. of the Temiscouata Railway, is in town this evening.

FIRE—About 10 30 p m, Monday, Dec, 28th, fire was discovered in the saw mill owned by Erlon Bell and C. A. Phillips, and in a short time was completly destroyed. By great efforts a considerable quantity of lumber was saved The mill was situated on the Shiktehawk stream near the railway bridge Loss, about $2,000; no insurance The fire was probably the work of an incendiary. We understand that the owners will build again in the spring.

Edwin Phillips is getting the lumber on the ground for his factory. It will occupy the site of the steam mill, that was burned some years ago. Such an enterprise deserves well, and we believe that it will succeed.

Mr. Shepherd Boyer was presented with a fine boy on New Year's morning. Congratulations.

The schools re-opened on Monday, no change being made in the staff of teachers.

The New Year was ushered in with very mild weather. The old year expired with a vigorous "kick." It is now snowing and raining. It rained heavily here yesterday. The snow is nearly all gone.

Victoria Council, Royal Templars with their invited friends, celebrated the new year with an oyster supper in their hall. A large number was present, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed.

The Hon. Minister of Inland Revenue, is at present visiting his constituents. He is expected here to-day. What brings him here at this time of the year? is asked. Some think that a general election is at hand and that the Minister is looking over the field preparatory to the battle. Time will tell.

Business continues very dull here. There is nothing doing at all. No money in circulation, and business men are at their wits end to make both ends meet. There must be a change for the better soon or there will be hard pulling to get through The holiday trade was never before known to be so dull as this season.

Schools re-opened this a. m. Two new teachers also. Mr. McKenna and Miss Manser. The former in charge of the superior school and the latter in charge of the primary school

To Those Interested in Fruit Growing.
IT is often said that the New Brunswick is a splendid apple, none better, but it lasts such a short time. Why can't we grow a good keeper like the American Baldwin. We have that apple in the Wealthy which is just as hardy and productive as the New Brunswick, the apple being as good if not better than the Baldwin. Wealthy apples are for sale and on exhibition at G. W. Clipp's, where those who want a good apple or are interested in fruit growing are cordially invited to call and see the best apple ever introduced to this part of the country.
Dr. Hoskins of Vermont, authority on fruit growing says, that fruit growing is profitable six hundred miles further north than was supposed to be possible before the Wealthy was originated.
Yours Truly,
F. SHARP.

ARRIVING
—AT—
Hanson's Salesroom!
100 BOXES RAISINS, comprising Valencia of State, Valencia Layers, London Layers; 500 lbs. fine New Figs; Florida Oranges; Cuba Bananas; Popping Corn; Walnuts, Filberts and Brazil Nuts, Almonds, 10 sacks Peanuts; 20 boxes Dates; 5 barrels C. C. Cranberries; Sweet Potatoes; 100 baskets Choice Grapes.
We shall endeavor during the coming Holidays to show our customers as fine a lot of FRUITS, NUTS and CONFECTIONERY as ever was imported by any one east of Bangor.
Don't forget that as we make the Fruit Business a specialty we are in a position to give our customers Goods at a very small margin Our aim is to keep our expenses as light as possible in order to give our customers the advantage of fine prices. I have been asked the question on several occasions why I did not carry a line of small Groceries; my answer has been invariably that one branch of business well looked after was worth a half dozen neglected and half cared for.
Don't forget that we still live and that the children must have bread.
W. B. HANSON,
Auctioneer and Com. Agent.
