A famous Brooklyn clergyman was once addressing a Sunday school on the lesson of the day, which happened to be Japob's Ladder.' He had got along swimmingly until a little urchin in one of the back seats squeaked out : . Why did the angels have to have a ladder At our magnificent Stock of NEW when they had wings?' After the inevitable laugh had subsided, the clergyman said. Well that is a fair question, your CHRISTMAS PRESENTS. who can answer it?' There was a pause, The quality is unsurpassed, the prices are low. It don't pay to buy my little man, asked the clergyman, single plate, that you will be ashamed of in a year, because it is cheap. a moultin', was the astonishing reply and the address was concluded right

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast ester. Tog frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solide of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events. The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhees or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headsohe and soidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach.

To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy. A gallant young man, giving an after dinner toast, referred to one member of

A Popular Physician The popular physician is unassuming, pleasant and augoessful in treating disease. Such an one is Burdock Blood Bitters—unassuming,—only a dollar a bottle—pleasant, agreeable in taste.—successful in nine cases out of ten. In truth it may be said B. B. B. is the popular physician to the people, a tried and trusted family friend in all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood liver, bowels and blood.

A child was asked what dust was, and he said: 'Dust is mud with the juice squeezed out. The same child said that snow was 'popped rain.'

Over A Century Old. Many cases are known of persons living to be over 100 years old and there is no good reason why this should not occur. By paying attention to the health by using Burdock Blood Bitters when necessary to purify the blood and strengthen the system much may be added to the comfort and happiness of life even if the century mark is not attained.
