Parties wanting anything in the cheapest

M. C. Keith at La Gloria. We had a ride of about a mile to the Plantation. They were picking the Coffee. Must of the Coffee were picking the Coffee were picking the Coffee is picked by native women and girls; some Jamacia men are employed te do the heavy work and so are native men, but they are not so reaged as the niggers, and are mostly employed cleaning up the weeds; a great many pickers camp amongst the coffee trees during the season with no tent but the trees, and a small fire to work by. To pick the coffee they have a basket used to their Parties wanting anything in the above line would do well to call and learn prices.

In the House of Commons, England, on the 15th, an amendment to the address in reply to Her Majesty's speech, was only negatived by a majority of 21. This amendment by Mr. Sexton declared that the majority of the Irish people and their representatives in Parliament are convinced of the inability of the Imperial Parliament to legislate for Ireland in a manner required by the distinctive in the convention of the case will cut the case of the case will cut the case of the case will cut the case will cut the case of the case of the case will cut the case of the case will cut the case of the case will cut the case of the case manner required by the distinctive interests of that country, this conviction being intensified by the manifest failure of the land purchase act to afford a basis for the extension of the class of occupying tenants. The vote was 158 yeas. Just why so many people suffer pain when a remedy of known and certain effect like Hagyard's Yellow Qil may be had at every drug store, is not very clear.
