An Appointment.

Hon. C. N. Skinner, M. P , bas been appointed Judge of Probate, St. John, to the vacancy occasioned by the death of his brother. Tois appointment appears to have taken everyone, even Mr. Skinner himself by surprise. So far as we have observed the press of St. John either condemns it or bave little to say in its favor, and the general tone of public sentiment may be expressed in P??. Of course there is no objection to the appointment on the ground of fitness; Mr. Skinner formerly ti'led the praision, but resigned it when he took a seat in the House of Commons. It seems there is nothing in the law to disqualify a Judge of Probate, from being a member of the Dominion Parliament, farmers horses only, and horses starting in the appointment being in the Local Govern- this race must be driven by owners. ment.
