To Those Interested in Fruit Growing.

It is often said that the New Brunswick is a splendid apple, none better, but it lasts such a short time. Why can't we grow a good keeper like the American Baldwin. We have that apple in the Wealthy which is just as hardy and productive as the New Brunswick, the apple being as good if not better than the Baldwin. Wealthy apples are for sale and on exhibition at G. W. Slipp's, where those who want a good apple or are interested in fruit growing are cordially invited to call and see the best apple ever introduced to this part of the country.

Dr. Hoskins of Vermont, authority on fruit growing says, that fruit growing is profitable six hundred miles further north than was supposed to be possible before the Wealthy was originated.

Yours Truly,

F. SHARP.

Miscellaneous.

Nyack people tell of the following incident that occurred at a wedding in the village: All went merrily until the bridegroom was called upon to produce the wedding ring. In vain he felt in his trousers pocket for the indispensable article. Nothing could be found except a hole, through which the ring had evidently fallen into his boot which he wore. What was he to do? 'Take your boot off,' said the parson. The suspense and silence were painful. The organist, at the dominie's bidding, struck up a "voluntary." The young man removed his boot, the ring was found, also a hole in his stocking, and the worthy minister remarked, evidently with more than the ceremony in mind, 'Young man it is time you were married.

DIDN'T NEED ANY.—Old Gotrox—You want to marry my daughter?

Young Gotnix—Yes, sir if you please.

Old Gotrox—Why, you impudent beggar, you can't earn your salt.

Young Gotnix—Yes, sir; but neither of us hardly ever uses it.

'I've gone clear back on slang,' says Bylius with emphasis.

'Why?' enquired his friend.

'I was calling on a young woman last evening and chanced to remark, "what you say goes."'

'And what did she do?'

'She murmured my name, very, very, softly.'

Don't

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

The following doubtful compliment is a fragment from a love letter: 'How I wish, my darling Adelaide, my engagement would permit me to leave town and come to see you. It would be like visiting some old ruin, hallowed by time and fraught with a thousand recollections.

For Over Fifty Years.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. If disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it It cures Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

Tommy—Mother, what is an angel?

Mother—An angel is a being that flies.

Tommy—But, mamma, papa calls my governess an angel.

Mother—Then, my dear, she is going to fly immediately.

A Romance.

She was fair—and my passion begun!
She smiled—and I could not but love!
But when from afar I detected catarrh,
No beauty my passion could move!

In despair she sought doctors in vain,
Till she learned of "Humanity's boon;"
Now her breath is as sweet as the dew
Which falls upon roses in June.

To night, as we sit in our home,
And I kiss her sweet lips o'er and o'er.
We bless Dr. Sage in our bliss,
For the joy that he brought to our door.

There is no disease more trying to friendship than catarrh! The constant effort to clear the throat and nose, the foul breath, all the features of the disease, make it much dreaded by the friends as by the victim. Humanity has cause to bless Dr. Sage for his "Catarrh Remedy." The manufacturers offers to forfeit $500 for any case they cannot cure.

Amy—'Papa, dear, Mr. Hunker says he loves the ground I walk no Papa—'No doubt, my daughter. Young Hunker wants the earth.'

A six-year-old little fellow was forced to wear a shirt three sizes too large for him. After strutting around a little while he burst out with, "Ma, I feel awful lonesome in this shirt."

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

'Now, John,' said Mrs. De Porque to the new gardener, 'I hope you will remember all that I have told you. And whatever you do, don't forget to water the electric-light plant.'

"Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful medicine so invigorates the system and enriches the blood that cold weather becomes positively enjoyable. Arctic explorers would do well to make a note of this

'Gran'pa I heard Miss Gushington tell Clara, yesterday, that Dr. Tenderby was a perfect duck. That's not right—is it?' 'I don't know that it's altogether wrong, my dear. There are lots of people who term him a regular quack!'

R. C. CRAIG & CO.

Woodstock, Nov. 27, 1891.

The following inscription is copied from a tombstone now standing in the Methodist Protestant burying ground in Avondole, Cincinnati:

Ann E.
Wife of Jeremiah Walters.
Died Nov. 16, 1868, aged sixty-eight years, five months.
She was a true and faithful wife to each of the following persons:
Enoch Francis.
John Sherman.
William Hassen.
J. Walters.

An old man with a head as destitute of hair as a watermelon, entered a Manhattan avenue drug store and told the clerk he wanted a bottle of hair restorer.

'What kind of hair restorer do you perfer!'

'I reckon I'll have to take a bottle of red hair restorer. That was the color it used to be when I was a boy.'

Harsh, But ——?

"Ho," said a well-known statesman, "I shall never believe that woman has the proper judgment and sense to cast a ballot, or interfere in politics, while she is so wantonly and passively suffer, year after year, from diseases peculiar to females, when every newspaper she picks up, tells of the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Not to to take advantage of this remedy is certainly an indication of mental weakness!"

There is a wholesome kernal of truth inside the rough shell of this ungallant speech The "Favorite Prescription" is invaluable in all uterine troubles, inflamations, ulcerations, displacements, nervous disorders, prostration, exhaustion, or hysteria. For run-down, worn-out women, no more strengthening tonic or Nevine is known.

The weather's mild and the air is sweet,
There's a genial warmth in the solar ray;
And you are not asked as you walk the street,
'Is it cold enough to-day?'

'Why does the mother so sadly weep
As she bids her son farewell?'
'Because he plays on the college team
And his fate no power can tell.'

A Popular Physician.

The popular physician is unassuming, pleasant and successful in treating disease. Such an one is Burdock Blood Bitters—unassuming,—only a dollar a bottle—pleasant, agreeable in taste.—successful in nine cases out of ten. In truth it may be said B. B. B. is the popular physician to the people, a tried and trusted family friend in all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood.

Haray—Stunning just passed, eh, old boy? Did you see her look back at me? Fred—Yes; they say it don't take much to turn a woman's head.

He—And you can only be a sister to me?
She—That's all.
He—Then please kiss me goodby; my sister always does.

Over A Century Old.

Many cases are known of persons living to be over 100 years old and there is no good reason why this should not occur. By paying attention to the health by using Burdock Blood Bitters when necessary to purify the blood and strengthen the system much may be added to the comfort and happiness of life even if the century mark is not attained.

Men ridicule women because they are so eager to follow the prevailing fashion; but they are not half so eager to follow the fashion as the men seem to be to follow the women.

Here is some solid foot for thought,
I heard it at a recent ball—
'Tis better to be kissed and caught,
Than never to be kissed at all.
