Boys Wanted. "Wanted-a boy." How often we These very common words may see Wanted—a boy to errands run. Wanted for everything under the sun. All that the men to day can do To morrow the boys will be doing, too; For the time is coming when The boys must stand in place of men.

Wanted—the world wants boys to day, And she offers them all she has to pay— Honor, wealth, position, fame, A useful life and a deathless name, Boys to shape the paths for men, Boys to guide the plow and pen, Boys to forward the tasks begun; For the world's great task is never done.

The world is saxious to employ Not just one, but every boy
Whose heart and brains will e'er be true
To work his hands shall find to do, Honest, faithful, earnest, kind; To good awake, to evil blind; Heart of gold without alloy Wanted—the world wants such a boy -Chicago Post.
