but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a moraing. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhoga or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be gid diness and often headsche and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy. ands attest its efficacy.

A Harlem wife lay dying. Her husband and children were gathered sorrow-fully about the death-bed watching the last breath of a loving wife and mother, when she fondly whispered: 'James, will you promise me not to marry again? It's my last wish.'

What is needed at this time is a topic and iavigorant—something that will promote proper functional action of the female organs. The only remedy to be depended on is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This unequalled medicine, which cures diseases peculiar to women, is especially valuable at the period when the girl crosses the threshold of womanhood.
