To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel The following paragraph which recently appeared in the legal reports of the Toronto people of Canada

Before Street, J.

Fulford v. Howe—Hoyles, Q. C., for the plaintiff, George Taylor Fulford, of the town of Brockville, druggist, moved for an injunction restraining the defendants, S. L. Howe and W. A. Howe, from selling pills in imitation of those cold by the plaintiff under the name of "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," and thereby infringing the plaintiff's trade mark for such pills registered undor that name which, the plaintiff alleges, by reason of his extensive advertising, is well known throughout Canada. Judgment granted for a perpetual injunction.
