The Why and Wherefore.

They who say that the nomination of Caldwell and Mr. Smith was only a make shift, tay what is wrong.

They are both good men and running together would have carried the elections we think. Mr. Caldwell was not at the nomina ting meeting and declined for the best of personal reasons, leaving Mr. Smith alone, and he under the orgumetances, new in elec struggles, desired to be relieved. Meanwhile Mr. Jones, according to his own statement, consented to run with Dr. Atkinson, believing that if the Government ticket was com leted, Mr. Connell, at all evente, would not
