Home Rule Bill Reported. London, Aug. 7 .- There was considerable excitement among the Conservative members who were present at the opening of to days session of the House of Cammons. The report stage of the Home Rule Bill was reached at an earlier hour than was expected and Mr. Balfour, the Conservative leader, who had an important amendment to offer, was not present to submit it.

Mr. Baltour's proposed amendment is intended to prevent the Irish members who shall be retained in the Imperial Parliment from voting on any question except amend ments to the Home Rule Bill after that bill shall become a law. The Conservatives are exceedingly desirous of having the amendment submitted, and Mr. George Bartly, Conservative, Northern Islington, requested to be permitted to act as Mr. Baltour's substitute in offering the amendment.

Speaker Peel ruled that at this stage substitutes could not be allowed. The Unionists stood aghast as they saw the report sweeping through. Their fright was allayed, however, when Mr. James Parker Smith, Liberal Unionist, after having eight new clauses proposed by him ruled out, obtained the Spe ker's sanction to move that the boundary commission under the bill be instructed to enquire as to a better division of the Irish electoral districts. The debate on this motion was taken up and this gave the Opposition time to breathe. Conservative and Liberal Unionists whips were at once despatched in search of absentees to summon them to immediate attendance at the House. Mesers. Baltour and Heneage and other members of the Opposition appeared in the House in time to take part in the debate on Mr. Smith's motion. Eventually the motion was defeated by a vote of 106 to 152.

Mr. Park Smith moved two further clauses dealing with elections in Ireland After some debate each clause was rejected, one by a majority of 43 and the other by a majority of 49.

Confirmed. The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, a few years ago, has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers, the California Fig Sprup Company.

Mrs. McConnell, of Pittsburg, Pean., kept a little candy etore. She is 70 years old, and, being too feeble to continue the business, sold it for $1,000 cash. She placed the money in the Lawrenceville Bank. Hearing the reports of bank fadures she became apprehensive for the money, and last Wednesday drew it out. The coshier told her the possession, but she thought he wanted to cheat her, so she carried it home. That
