Miscellaneous.

A good story comes from a church on the Scottish Border. A new vicar had succeeded to the 'curse of souls,' and being of a reforming frame of mind he introduced several improvements—as he considered them—into the service of the church. A friend who visited him a couple of months after his installation commented on the fact: "You've been making a few changes in the service; he observed. 'Yes, one or two,' replied the vicar. 'I don't like these innovations,' continued the other. 'I notice that you read the communion-table at the communion-table.' Ah! I'm afraid we've introduced a greater novelty than that," answered the vicar, with a smile. "Indeed! What is that?" "Well, we try to keep them to it."

Chicago Managing Editor—Pretty good expression that of yours! All things to all men.

Modest Assistant—Yes, but I can hardly lay claim to being its originator. Managing Editor—No? Where did you get it then?

Modest Assistant—It is from the Bible.

Managing Editor—Oh, well that's all right. Nobody in Chicago I ever get onto it.

The late Mr. Spurgeon, of London, was severe on ministers who undertook the duties of their calling without proper qualifications. He made the following remarks in one of his lectures to his students: "I heard one say the other day that a certain preacher had no more gifts for the ministry than an oyster and in my own judgment that was a slander on the oyster, for that worthy bivalve shows great discretion in his openings, and knows when to close!"

Edward Child, of St. Peter, C. B., says: "That his horse was badly torn by a pitchfork. One bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT cured him."

Every Stable man all over the Dominion tell our agents that they would not be without MINARD'S LINIMENT for twice the cost.

Mrs. Ryan (from a window)—Phew! have you there, Mrs. Casey, a duck in it? Mrs. Casey—Faith, an' it is; it is for the doctor: he does be liken duck.

Mrs. Ryan—Do you mind the old saying, 'Birds of a feather flock together.' There'll be two quacks at the same table.

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unpleasant but not well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, also, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Dizziness or Constipation may be a symptom of the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and other headache and vertigo or flatulence and indigestion in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands have been cured.

Blobbs had returned very late from the club and stood on his doorstep violently ringing, kicking and swearing. "William," said Mrs. Blobbs from the upper window, "I'll drop a key down to you."

"I got a key," "Well then, what do you want?" "I want you (sic) to come down and shut the door for me."

The Results of Neglect.

A slight attack of cramp may bring on diarrhea, which is in many cases followed by inflammation of the stomach and a dozen other dangerous complaints, any one of which if neglected will cause death. All such disorders are dangerous in hot weather, and should in the instance of the worst be treated with the best remedy known, as well known that it is recognized all over the world as the standard specific for cramps, cholera, morbid, cholera, diarrhea and dysentery. All druggists sell the PAIN EXPELLER, and direct usage with each bottle. Only 25c. for large size.

Editor—The country is ruined. The people in the town will live in ignorance. Assistant—What's the matter now? Editor—The press is shackled. I have lost my scissors!

Local Option.

This term should be applied to the choice every intelligent person has between Burdock Blood Bitters, the natural and certain remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, head ache, and bad blood, and the various ailments as good. There is nothing else so good as B.B.B. It is a honest medicine.

Detective (hurriedly)—Where did that fellow go who just ran out of the hotel?

Citizen (still rubbing the toe that the fugitive stepped on)—I don't know; but I hope he'll go where I told him to.

Why

you take

Cold

Cough.

Generally caused by exposure to cold, wet feet, sitting in a draught, coming from hot and crowded places, in thin dress, or wearing damp clothes, stockings, or any other cause tending to check suddenly the perspiration. The result produces inflammation of the lining membrane of the lungs or throat, and this causes phlegm or matter, which nature tries to throw off by expectoration. In many cases she is unable to do so without assistance, and this is
