That are Old
Are Improved by Age!

THIS APPLIES TO SOAP!

There is a lot of it at the Masonic Hall
DRUG STORE,
That will be closed out for a mere song.

Should you want BABY'S OWN, INFANTS' DELIGHT, CASH-MERE BOUQUET, or any of the most SOAPS, you can get it as well.

Perfumes and Toilet Waters are not lacking either.

When you want SOAPS or PER-FUMERY, go to
MASONIC HALL DRUG STORE,

Miscellaneous.

He had two plasters on his face, one on the back of his head, his arm was in a sling and he limped.

'You look as if you had been run through a plating mill,' was the remark he was greeted with.

'I feel so,' he replied.
'Been calling anyone a liar.'
'No.'
'Try to kick a tramp out of the back yard.'
'No.'
'Wife leave a pail of water on the stairs.'
'No.'
'Well, what is the matter?'
'I tried to stop a family quarrel in the next flat.'

'You would scarcely take my daughter —Baby, we call her— to be twenty-one years old, would you?' said a fond mother, speaking of her spinster-looking child.

'No, indeed, I should not,' was the reply.

'So everyone says: but how old would you have imagined her?'
'Oh, I don't know exactly, though if I had been guessing her age I should have said she was about thirty-three and a half years, or maybe three-quarters. One can't always tell within a month or two, you know.'

Judkins—I saw Sommers drunk last night. What's the matter? He's going to the dogs.

Madkins—He proposed to two women this morning.

J—Ah, yes. Got rejected, of course?
M—No; accepted by both.

What Am I to Do?
The symptoms of Biliousness are unappet-ite, indigestion, headache, constipation, and a general feeling of uneasiness. Biliousness is a common ailment, and one which can be easily cured by the use of a reliable cathartic. The symptoms of Biliousness are Society Man—My baby had a very narrow escape this morning.

Friend—Indeed! How so?
S. M.—The nurse girl, thoughtlessly, left it alone in the care of its mother.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.
Gentlemen.—In driving over the mountains I took a severe cold which settled in my back and kidneys, causing me many sleepless nights of pain. The first application of MINARD'S LINIMENT relieved me that I fell into a deep sleep and complete recovery shortly followed.
Annapolis.

Helen—Aunt Hannah, why won't you go with me to the violet tea to-morrow?

Aunt Hannah—Last night, child, I haven't drunk nothing but green tea for years?
I can't change it now.

"Gift Enterprises"
seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible.
Grocers get a house for 6 of some kind, and offer all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soap to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays for the door, and the "Gift Soap" represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

"Yes, her death is a great loss to us.
She was one of the brightest lights of the sewing circle."

"Yes; she knew the private affairs of almost every family in town."

"The Blood is the Life." Runs the old saying, and it is true that error in any part of the system of the body must reach its place through the blood. Therefore, if the blood is purified and kept in good condition by the use of the blood purifier, it necessarily follows that the benefit of the medicine is imparted to every organ of the body. Can anything be simpler than the method by which this valuable medicine gives good health to all who will try it fairly and patiently?

Miss Betty (romantically)—Men never do brave deeds nowadays to show their love for women.

Mr. Bees—They don't, eh? Don't they marry them?

More Valuable Than Diamonds.
Cut from the cod fish when combined with hypophosphites of lime and soda, as in "Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil," will build up the cellular tissue and create new blood.
This is just what consumptive patients need. It has cured thousands of people who would otherwise have perished. At this time occupying narrow space in the graveyards of our country. Miller's Emulsion is worth a trial. In big bottles, 50c and 1.00, at Garden Bros' Drug Store.

Newsboy (poking his head into Broadway car)—Telegram?
Uncle Ensign's Sir—Great Scott, Marine! that's the fellow John, I'll bet. The barn must be a-fire.

For Sprains and Bruises.
No other remedy cures sprains, bruises, cuts, wounds, chafes, sore throat, rheumatism, etc., so promptly as Haggard's Yellow Oil. It is an old stand-by remedy that has given satisfaction for 30 years.

As I am told, you and Fanny are very married and happy?

Yes; that is to say, she is happy and I am married.

A Valuable Hint.
When you are attacked by cough or cold do not delay but commence at once to use Haggard's Yellow Oil. This old stand-by remedy removes all irritation, loosens the phlegm, and heals the mucous surface, curing coughs and colds of all kinds.

A society journal informs its readers that when a gentleman and a lady are walking up the street the lady should walk inside the gentleman.

For Sore Throat, Sudden Colds and Diphtheria, no remedy has ever been discovered so powerful to cure as Davis' Pars-Kiss. As Diphtheria is less noxious than Rheumatism, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Sore Eyes, Sore Throat, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful Blemish Cure ever known. Warranted by Garden Bros.

Mrs. A. A. Williams

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.
We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Silsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.: 'I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an Article of Merit and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend these benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe Nervous Headache
for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well, but permanently. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising that such a simple one bottle could do so much for her. The headache decreased in number and were less violent in their interference, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better.
From our experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla
I have no hesitation in endorsing it as a valuable medicine. A. A. WILLIAMS.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best family cathartic, gentle and effective. Try a box. Price 25c Cough.

Generally caused by exposure to cold, wet feet, sitting in a draught, coming from hot and crowded places, in thin dress, or wearing damp clothes, stockings, or any other cause tending to check suddenly the perspiration. The result produces inflammation of the lining membrane of the lungs, and this causes phlegm or mucus, which naturally tries to throw off by expectora-tion. In many cases she is unable to do so without assistance, and this is profane, and given over to every kind of dissipation?
