Everybody who attended the Garden Party at Squire Hutchinson's on Saturday evening last enjoyed the time immensely. The crow was far beyond what was expected, but there was lots of room and plenty to eat. about 7.30 the Andover Cornet Band came on the grounds, and at once commenced playing some of its best selections. The baskets were then sold and the contents dealt with by many hungry ones. After supper was over the bandemen once more made their appearance on the lawn, and again rendered sweet music to attentive listeners. The rereshment stand was well patronized, and everyone was cool if ice cream would make them. The Parlor Concert given by the Andover orchestra was the most pleasing part of the evening's entertainment to all who appreciate good music. When the concert was over the band outside played God Save the Queen, and the crowd scattered in all directions. The proceeds amounted to $46.50.
