GOOD Food - - Digestion - Complexion

are all intimately connected—practically inseparable. Though the fact is often ignored, it is nevertheless true that a good complexion is an impossibility without good digestion, which in turn depends on good food.

There is no more common cause of indigestion than lard. Let the bright housekeeper use

Miscellaneous.

He was waiting for her at the corner of a street. Presently she came tripping along, and stopping, held out her hand.

'How are you?' he asked.

'I'm lovely,' she replied.

'Lovely!' he exclaimed. 'I should think you are, and you grow lovlelier every day.'

She smiled and blush d, then taking his arm with a caressing gesture she suffered him to lead her away.

Mr. Gayboy (who is homely to a pretty servant)—My wife talked rough to you, but you haven't given any notice to quit. Tell me candidly, Jennie, is it me that keeps you in this house?

Jennie—Yes, it is, Mr. Gayboy. This is the only house I ever was in where my sweetheart wasn't jealous of the boss.

The teachers and the golden rod are blooming o'er the land.
Geography and pumpkin pie now wander hand in hand:
Fried onions and orthography are in the atmosphere,
Which tells that the time to change our underclothes is near.

'Are you going up to see Miss Giggles to-night, Cholly?'

'Naw; I'm afraid of her father, don't-cherknow.'

'Why?'

'I—aw—heard that he called me a puppy yesterday.'

'Then you're all right; he won't hurt you. He's a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.'

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Silliton—Aw—r, did you—er—knock—my hat off intentionally or just to make a fool of me?

Tough—Why, I done it intentionally, o' course. Wot's der matter wid yer?

Silliton—Well—er—it's good for you that you didn't do it to make a fool of me, I—er—allow no man to make a fool of me.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.

Gents,—My daughter was suffering terribly with Neuralgia. I purchased a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT and rubbed her face thoroughly. The pain left her and she slept well till morning. Next night another attack, another application resulted as previously, with no return since. Grateful feelings determined me to express myself publicly. I would not be without MINARD'S LINIMENT in the house at any cost.

Parkdale, Ont. J. H. BAILEY.

She was a little afraid of the big waves but the presence of her big cousin from the country reassured her a good deal.

'Now,' she said, 'when I get frightened, I shall make a vociferous appeal for assistance.'

'No,' he said heartily, 'don't say that. Jest you holler for help an' I'll be on hand.'

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

Woodstock, March 2nd., 1893.

A lecturer who had for several minutes harangued his audience on the beauties of politeness, was interrupted by a man who arose and said:

'That's all very well, cap—mighty fine talkin, an' all that, but in this town politeness don't pay.'

'You are mistaken sir,' the lecturer answered; 'politeness pays in any and all towns.'

'No, you are wrong,' the interrupter persisted; 'it don't pay here. I'll tell you why. For sometime I have been eating at a lunch counter round yonder, and I noticed that every man sat up to the counter with his hat on, and as I wasn't brought up that way I concluded to take my hat off, and I did so.'

'Well, did any one object?' the lecturer asked.

'Oh no, there was no objection, but you see some fellow stole my hat.'

'Look here, mister,' said the man with a carpetsack, 'I'm willin to do anything that's in reason. I am willing to mind any rules yer hotel sees fit to get up as long as they have any common sense back of 'em, but all I've got to say that if yer in earnest you've violated the principles of common sense, an if it's a joke it's a mighty dogoned poor one.'

'What on earth do you mean?' the hotel clerk asked as the guest took breath.

I allude to them signs ye've got tacked up in my room. One of them says, 'Don't blow out the gas,' and another says, 'Gas burned after midnight 'll be charged fur extra.' Now, what in thunder is a feller goin to do?

After Effects of La Grippe.

PARRY SOUND, Oct 16—In the year 1891, Miss Ida I. Hiscock, of this place, suffered from a severe attack of La Grippe. Her life was saved but, as is too often the case, the victim of this dread disease did not escape scot free. Ever since her illness Miss Hiscock has suffered from nervous prostration and insomnia. Nothing in the way of medicine did her any good until she recently began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. She has just finished the second box of the pills and the result has been a delightful surprise to herself and her friends. She is rapidly recovering and no longer suffers from insomnia, but enjoys refreshing sleep. Here is another case in which an unsuspected kidney affection entailed much suffering and many months of misery.

Many other people are doubtless unconscious sufferers from kidney trouble. Fortunately this remedy is within easy reach of them, if they will avail themselves of it.

Just as she entered the doorway the car gave a lurch, as street cars are apt to do, and the pretty girl was thrown plump in the lap of a fatherly Irishman.

'Pray pardon me,' she said as she rose to her feet, while the rest of the passengers tittered.

'Don't mention it, me darlint,' replied the Irishman. 'I cud hold ye a full hour.'

Then she blushed furiously and the passengers snickered aloud.

The Advertising

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is always within the bounds of reason because it is true; it always appeals to the sober, common sense of thinking people because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by endorsements which, in the financial world, would be accepted without a moment's hesitation.

HOOD'S PILLS cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

Dusty Rhodes—I stopped to see if you would give me the recipe you use for mince pies.

Mrs. Dogood—The idea! What do you want of it?

Dusty Rhodes—Fitzwilliam tried to make me believe you used three cups of Portland cement to one of molasses; and I said you didn't.

A Rare Combination.

There is no other remedy or combination of medicines that meets so many requirements, as does Burdock Blood Bitters in its wide range of power over such chronic diseases as dyspepsia, liver and kidney complaint, scrofula, and all humors of the blood.

Miss Goodgirl—What are you thinking of so intently?

Young Gayboy—Well, if you must know, I was thinking what the result would be, if I should suddenly grab and kiss you.

Miss Goodgirl—Oh, Mr. Gayboy, how terrible for you to have such thoughts, when my brother and father are both out, my mother sick in bed upstairs, and no one in the world who could possibly come to my assistance!

The Power of Nature.

For every ill, nature has a cure. In the healing virtues of Norway Pine lies the cure for coughs, colds, croup, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, etc. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup represents the virtues of Norway Pine and other pectoral remedies. Price 25c.

Mr Waite (trying to entertain his lady love's 6 year-old sister)—Do you know who I am?

Flossie—Yes. Pa says you're Edith's last chance.

A Professional Opinion.

Rev. F. Gunner, M.D., of Listowel, Ont., says regarding B.B.B.: "I have used your excellent Burdock Compound in practice and in my family since 1884, and hold it No. 1 on my list of sanative remedies. Your three busy B's never sting, weaken or worry."

Mr. Sourly—I'm going to have my picture taken to-day.

Mr. Sourly's Wife—You will have to make a great sacrifice if you do.

Mr. S.—Why?

M. S. s W.—You'll have to look pleasant for a moment or two.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

South American Rheumatic Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by Gardea Bros, Druggists.

Parent—And does my daughter really love you?

Chappie—Dearly, sir.

Parent (reflectively)—I presume so, poor, frank-hearted little Katie! She could love most anything.

Davis' Pain Killer.

The best and most popular Family Medicine in the world. A blessing to the rich; a friend to the poor; within the reach of all, it has saved more lives and relieved more suffering incidental to travelling than any other medicine. 25c. per bottle, large size.

The Bishop—What did you think of my sermon on the life eternal?

She—After I had heard it I no longer doubted that there was an eternity.

H. A HARVEY, manager at St. John, of the Bank of British North America, wrote to the Hawker Medicine Company of a case that came under his notice where a man who had been laid up all winter with a heavy cold and severe cough was restored to health by Hawker's Tolu and Cherry Balsam and Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic.

She—Oh, isn't that a bull?

He—Yes, but you needn't be afraid so long as I am with you.

She—But I'm afraid you wouldn't be with me if he came this way.

Thousands of bottles of Puttner's Emulsion are annually sold in the Maritime Provinces, where it is best known. None but an article of sterling worth could stand this test.

'Well, Anna, have you found the rose for my hair yet?'

'Yes, madam; but now I cannot find the hair.'

Willie Keep—I was once very strongly tempted to blow out my bwains.

Ethel Knox—Did you do it?
