Miscellaneous.

She was a Vassar graduate and didn't know a little bit about housekeeping when she married her last beau and settled down to domestic life.

Her first order at the grocers' was a crusher, but that good man was used to all sorts of people, and could interpret Vassar as easily as plain English.

'I want ten pounds of parilized sugar,' she said with a business air.

'Yes'm.' Anything else?

'Two cans of condemned milk.'

'Yes'm.' He set down 'pulverized sug.' condensed milk'

'Anything more, ma'am?'

'A bag of fresh salt—be sure that it is fresh.'

'Yes'm. What next?'

'A pound of desecrated codfish'

'Yes'm.' He wrote glibly 'desicated cod.'

Nothing more, ma'am? Here's some nice horse radish just in.'

'No,' she said, with a sad wobble to her flexible voice, 'it would be of no use, we don't keep a horse'

Then the grocer sat down on a kit of mackerel and fanned himself with a patent washboard. Vassar had taken the cake.

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Teacher—Can you mention some wise provision of nature?

Boy—Yes'm. When girls can't have their own way, they cry; and then a boy will do anything they want, only so they'll stop, and they would be bossin' the boys that way all the time, if it wasn't for a wise pervision of nature.

What provision, pray?

Cryin' makes their noses red.

Bob Burdette, in one of his lectures, tells the story of the deacon's daughter who made a crazy quilt for a church fair which contained 4,000,000 stitches, while her father fastened his suspenders with a long spike, a safety pin and a regularly ordained button.

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

The lady had implied a doubt as to the statement of the dairyman. 'Madam,' he said, indignantly, 'my reputation rests upon my butter.' 'Well,' she replied, testily, 'you needn't get ugly about it. The foundation is strong enough to keep it up forever.'

I CAN highly praise Burdock Blood Bitters because it had a fair trial in my case with wonderful success. My symptoms were dropsy, backache and sleeplessness, and all these disappeared after using two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters. I cannot praise its healing powers too highly GEORGINA HOLMES,

Mrs. de Scadd-Hunter—Amelia, I do wish you would not encourage that persistent young Ardup to come here so often—

Mrs. de Scadd-Hunter—I must request you, Amelia, not to interrupt me when I am speaking. I was about to remark that I wish you would not encourage Mr. Ardup to come here so often unless you reciprocate the feelings he evidently entertains for you, in which case, of course, I have nothing further to say. I have every reason to believe Mr. Ardup to be an excellent young man, etc, etc.

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection—Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and his Friends, Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him

CHATHAM, April 30—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him Dodd's was the first kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50 cents or six boxes for $2 50. To be had of all dealers.

Merchant (to clerk applying for a situation)—On principle I only engage married men.

Are you Bilious?

A bilious condition is indicated by costiveness, headache, bad morning taste, variable and poor appetite, cold feet, chilliness and depression If you are bilious a certain cure will be found in a course of Hawker's liver pills. They are very easy to take, mild in action, do not gripe, and do not sicken. They are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents per box.

Mr. Justwed—These eggs are a little too hard, dear.

Mrs. Justwed—Yes, dear John; I know it. But they boiled for more than an hour, and yet they would not get soft.

Give it One Trial.

Are you "all stuffed up" with a cold in the head? Hawker's catarrh cure will clear it out quicker than anything else you can use. A box costs 25 cents and will cure a whole family. It is a very simple and effective remedy and those who have once tried it will use no other.
