To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel : In your last issue ; ou quote from the Globe to say that Mr. Pugsley is an active Conser-vative and Mr. Ryan the Ohief Commissoner at the time of the Suspension Bridge repairs, is also a Conservative. The Globe's reply to the Mail would have been very feeble, even if its facts were all right. The Mail's contention was, that the Liberal jour-nals did not criticise the administration in connection with the Suspension Bridge scandal, because the government was led by a Liberal. The Globe says that no Liberal was in any way connected with it, but only Conservatives. This would be a reason why Liberal Journals should assail the glaring steal-but they have not-now as to Mr. Pugsley, he writes himself down in the Parliamentary Companion as an Independent in Dominion politics, while Mr. Ryan signs himself as a Liberal, so that the Globe is decidedly off.
