

Every Mother should have it in acts promptly; It is always ready for use; It is the best; It is the oldest; It is unlike any other; It is superior to all others; It is used and recommended by physicians everywhere; It has stood upon its own intrinsic merit and excellence while generation after generation have used it with entire satisfaction and handed down the knowledge of its worth to their children as a valuable inheritance. Could a remedy have existed for eighty years except remedy have existed for eighty years except that it possesses great merit for family use?

A lady, an enthusiastic teetotaler, went to her clergyman and begged him o establish a total abstinence society in the parish. He by no means took it up armly, and replied that he thought here were many other abuses besides i temperance which quite as urgently demanded reform-dress for example. 'Why not, said he, 'get up a society for the improvement of dress? I quite agree with you, replied the lady, 'and I intend to start such a society. 'And may I ask, madam, was the clergyman's sarcastic reoinder, 'whether you intend to found it n principles of moderation or total ab-

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhoes or Constination may be a symptom or The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhoea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Medical Men Investigating the Discovery of an Absolute Remedy for Diabetes.

Toronto, Dec. 17—Medical men are on the elect just now when the subject of kidney disease comes up for discussion. Diabetes has a ways been looked upon as sure death by the profession, but lately the dectors have had their eyes opened to the possibility of a cure by Dr. E. A. Rose, of Portland, Oat. He has stated in writing that he was cured of this disease after being pronounced 'in extremis' by six medical brethrem, and his cure was effected by mease of Dodd's Kidney Pills. This remedy has attracted much attention from the medical profession be cause of its success in the cure of kidney disease, and many physicians are to-day prescribing it arise from a disordered condition of the story-day. and many physicians are to-day prescribing it in affections of these organs.
