(From our Regular Correspondent) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 9, '94. The results of the elections were surprising, rot to say astounding, alike to the peo tions of republicans that they expected it all the time. These sudden political changes, which have of late years become so frequent in our national elections, have a deep significance to the student of our political future. Whether they are beneficial or otherwise is a question not easy of final settlement by any indicate that that of time. But that they indicate that many thousand voters are influenced by their unrest and desire for a change with the hope of bettering themselves, rather than by their party fealty or belief in any particular principles seems well night errain. All the rest six watchmen and six laborers. All the rest will be looked after by the civil service commission, when vacancies occur. This order is far from pleasing to the local democrate, who had been calculating to profit largely by the promotion of one of their number to be postmaster—the first bona fide citizen of Washington who has held the position for Washington who has held the position for many years—but the employes of the post office are delighted with it.

There is no doubt about the genuineness of the repicing on the part of the rank and illed of the republican party over their successes, but for many of their leaders there are prickly thoras on the roses of victory. The leaders do not fanny the debut of a new Presidential candidate. Nov 12, 1894 The sensation this week is the elopement of Henry A. Gallop, of Birch Ridge, and Miss Emily Barnes of the same place Mr Gallop is a staid farmer of the Ridge, 31 years of age, and not at all the kind of person whom one would and not at all the kind of person whom one would be likely to suspect of an escapade of that sort; while Miss Barnes is a young English girl, who came out to N. B two years ago. She is sixteen years of age, and was under the guardianship of Rev. J. R. Hopkins, of whose congregation Mr. Gallop is also a member. The reverend gentleman was opposed to the match, owing to the youthful years of the bride-prospective; so they took the opportunity of leaving while Mr. Hopkins was away to town. There is strong talk of kine was away to town. There is strong talk of prosecution, but, as "all the world loves a lover," there would be nothing gained by such proceedings. Your correspondent hopes that the realities of the commubial state may always be as rosy as they must have appeared at the time of the "flight by midnight." The Rev J R Hopkins returned from town on Thursday, and last night preached an able and earnest sermon frrm Isaiah xxxII, 2, "And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind. and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land."

The population of Birch Ridge has been augmented considerably during the past summer by the coming of several English families; the latest arrival being a Mr West, with his wife and family. Mr West is a school teacher, and comes worthily recommended by educational authorities in England. Another accident at Plaster Rock. John Campbell, jr, was working at the Rock, when a great mass was detached from above, and he was

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptab's and pleas ant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect lax-ative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

The Cowardly Chinese. The correspondent of the Central News at Tokio gives the following additional details of the capture of Talien Wan by General Ogama: Six forts placed in strong positions on Tolien Wan By, mounting eighty gune of various sizes and petterns, together with all their stores of ammunition, etc., were captured. The parrowest part of the land at munication and the place was protected by powerful arranged batteries and other defences against a sea attack. General Oyame, therefore, considered it advisable to make an attack from the year and in this he was completely successful. The demoralized enemy were routed in confusion and panic.

DECRIVING THE LADIES— The unceasing struggle for supremacy in almost every line of trade undoubtedly has a tendency to make dealers resort to questionable methods of business. Take, for instance, a line of high-class dress goods like Pricatley's which has been brought to a state of perfection and has attained popularity everywhere; as soon as the ladies insist upon having these goods and no others it is repayted that some merchants have even taken the "Varnished Board," Pricatley's Trada Mark, out of the Genuine Pricatley's Black Dress Goods or Cravenettee and wrapped inferior goods upon it for the purpose of deceiving the customer. Fortunately, however, an extra precaution was adopted by the manufacturers in stamping the name "Pricatley's" and the length en every five yards so that ladies who wast these goods can be sure they are getting them.
