The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily out too well known. They differ in different ndividuals to some extent. A Bilious man is reldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, be has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events. The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhoes or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be gid-divess and often headache and acidity or flatu-ience and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thous
