Miscellaneous.

On the subject of hens a boy writes: 'Hens is curious animals. They don't have no nose, nor no teeth, nor no ears. They swallow their wittles whole and chew it up in their crops inside of 'em. The outside of hens is generally put into pillers and inter feather dusters. The inside of a hen is sometimes filled with marbles and shirt buttons and such. A hen is very much smaller than a good many other animals, but they'll dig up more cabbage plants than anything that ain't a hen. Hens is very useful to lay eggs for plum puddings. Skinney Bates eat so much plum pudding once that it sent him inter the collery. Hens has got wings and can fly when they get scart. I cut Uncle William's hen's head off with a hatchet, and it scart her to death. Hens sometimes make very fine spring chickens.'

A story of Scotch honesty comes from Dundee. A small boy had taken the prize for an exceptionally well drawn map. After the examination the teacher, a little doubtful, asked the lad:

'Who helped you with this map James.'
'Nobody, sir.'
'Come, now, tell me the truth. Didn't your brother help you?'
'No sir; he did it all.'

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

The Adored One—No, I shouldn't object to a stag party. But from all I hear I am forced to conclude that it became a stagger party before it was over.

"Gift Enterprises"

Seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sort of 'Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such Soaps to the trade

It is a well-known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

Miss Dudely—There is no object so beautiful to me as a conscientious young man. I watch him as I do a star in heaven.
Miss Snobery—That's my view exactly. In fact, I think there is nothing so beautiful as a young man, even if he isn't conscientious.

An old woman went to hear a neighbor's son preach his trial sermon in a wee country kirk not far from Edinburgh. She "kent a' aboot the faimly' and their affairs, and wondered how they had managed to make a minister of him, as they were "unco puir an' stippid folk." The young minister gave out his text, and she eagerly nudged the lady next to her. "Whit's the laddie say'n?' she asked. "In my father's house are many mansions," was the reply. "It's a lee! it's a lee!' whisper'd the old body, "for we're stairheid neebors. The faither ne'er had mair than a room an' kitchen a' his days!"

A Terrible Experience.

Mr. George Tribe, of Straffordville, Ont., a pretty village near the shores of Lake Erie, went through an experience lately that he will never forget. He tells it in his own words:

For three years I suffered from skin disease in its worst form. I tried Kennedy's Medical Discovery and the Cuticura remedies, and doctored one year with the best physicians in the land, but got no benefit; they pronounced my disease a Scaly Eruption but failed to remove it It came on in red blotches and spread over my body: the skin became dry and formed hard white scales; the itching was intolerable, but I am now completely cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. I can truly say that I owe my good health to B B B, and I advise all sufferers to use this splendid medicine
GEORGE TRIBE, Straffordville, Ont.

'What's the trouble?'
'The wretch made the wedding party march out the church to variations of 'What Shall the Harvest Be?'

Common Sense

Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh As catarrh originates in impurities of the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOOD'S PILLS cure constipation by restoring peristaltic action to the alimentary canal.

WOOL AND RUTS.

How hard it is to get out of a Rut. Our strongest reason for doing as we do, is often

"Because We Always Have."

If you raise wool, or work in wool at home, we wish to say a few plain words, while you give your attention. You pay for carding wool into rolls, six cents. You hire some one to spin at 25c. a day. They do two pounds, this cost you 12½ cents a pound, then you heard them, it is worth 25c. a day making the spinning cost 28 cents per pound besides the carding, 6 cents. Now we do all this for nine cents at the factory. Are you in that rut, we wish to help you out.

REMEMBER!

W. Woollen Mill is a saver of labor to the wives and daughters, as the mowing, raking and pitching machine save labor of husband and boys.

We are taking wool at cash price in exchange for Cloth, Yarn, Blankets, Flannel, Horse Blankets and Woollen goods.
