In the latter part of 1893, says an article in the Manchester, Eng., Times, the good barque Tamar E. Marshall commanded by Capt W. J. Scott, left the port of St. John, N. B., Canada, for Liverpool, where set arrived in due course. In her capital the response of the resp left the port of St. John, N. B. Canada, for Liverpools where she arrived in due course. In her cabin she carried the pioneer cosignment of the great Hawker remedies, and thus marked an era in the progress of madical release in this country. After alluding to the Hawker remedies as the greatest success of the country, the arricle quotes the testimany of four well-hanwa persons residing in differant parts of the country, one a leading clergyman in Cheshire recommending in the highest terms Hawker's nerve and attempts to tone. Hawker's hiver here and attempts to the supply conditions and wild cherry. It further says: "The supply of these remedies brought out by the Tamu E. Marshall was soon axiausted and a fresh supply called for. The second consignment came by the Alian line steamer Mongolian, and was used up within six days after reaching this country. Other consignments have followed for natural sequence, and a large stock is now held to meet an ever increasing demand." KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting n the form most acceptab's and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowe's withort weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance. Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manu-

Priestley's Dress Goods

A good name is more potent than thrones and kingdoms. In business a good name is vital. The name of Priestley is a synonym for what is delicate, durable and beautiful in Black Dress Goods. In England it is a household word. Priestley's dress fabrics are worn by the well dressed women of Great Britain, while on this side, they have attained to general favor. Ladies should buy no other black dress goods till they have seen Priestley's. They add
