Miscellaneous.

A country clergyman kept a young servant lad. One Sunday morning before service he gave him his orders about the dinner and said:

'Go to neighbor David and ask him from me to let you have some tripe on credit, and then prepare me a nice plateful.'

The lad did as he was told, and the clergyman went to conduct the service. As he stood in the pulpit he called out in the middle of his sermon:

'And on this subject, brethren, what does David say?

At that moment his little valet stepped into the church and, in the belief that his master was addressing him, he replied:

'Please sir, he says, 'No money no tripe!'

A considerable measure of fatalism is a great help to a soldier. If what is to be will be, why be afraid of anything?

A southern soldier describes a man in his company, 'a little Dutch Jew,' as the very incarnation of cool, impudent bravado in a fight. A consistent fatalist, he summed up his faith in one sentence—'You'll never die till your time comes.'

One day he saw me dodging a spent minie that came whistling uncomfortably near.

'Hey, Dock! he sang out in his piping voice. 'Vat's te use to dodge tem pullets? They'll hit you shust as vell vere you is as vere you aint.'

Don't

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept clear of all obstructions and offensive matter Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

Mistress—Babetta, when I was driving in the other day I saw a nurse allow a policeman to kiss a child. I hope you never allow such a thing

Babetta—Non, madame; no ploizeman vould think of keesing ze child ven I vas zere.

For Over Fifty Years,

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. It disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," for Children Teething It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums and reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system "Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP"

He—Miss Swansdown uses such queer comparisons. Speaking of you, she said your pedigree was as long as the tail of your favorite cat.

She—She has a certain sense of humor also. The only cat I possess came from the Isle of Man.

SURGEON'S KNIVES

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's system—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which have never yet failed, cured him in short Order.

SANDWICH, May 28—Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint, kidney trouble and bladder complaint Four surgeons cut away at him for 4½ hours, but, when they got through, none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

Gertrude—I hear that Mr. Brush paid me a very nice compliment to-day.

Carrie—Yes? What was it?

Gertrude—Why, he said that among the most beautiful young ladies at the dance was Miss Gertrude Crandall.

Carrie—(cuttingly)—Yes; I noticed you among them.

"Gift Enterprises"

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

'Did John get that place in the Government service?' 'No; turned down in spellin' an' g'ography.' 'Poor fellow! What's he doing now?' 'He's a-teachin' of a school, an' a-runnin' fer suprintendant er eddication.

How to get a "Sunlight" Picture.

Send 25 "Sunlight" Soap wrappers (wrapper bearing the words "Why does a Woman Look Old Sooner Than a Man") to Lever Bros., Ltd., 43 Scott St., Toronto, and you will receive by post a pretty picture, free from advertising, and well worth framing. This is an easy way to decorate your home. This soap is the best in the market and it will only cost 1c. postage to send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends open. Write your address carefully.

Mrs Partington—A pious old lady happened in at a Christian Endeavor meeting. She was much impressed by the young people's earnestness, and especially pleased with the singing. She said:—Oh, I do love to hear 'em sing! They sing with such venom!'

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "NEW GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN KIDNEY CURE" This new remedy is a great surprise and delight to physicians on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by Garden Bros, Druggists.

Tom—Did Maud tell you the truth when you asked her her age?

Jack—Yes.

Tom—What did she say?

Jack—She said it was none of my business.

I SUFFERED for a long time with constipation and tried many medicines without success. I then tried Burdock Blood Bitters and very soon had great relief, so I continued its use and am now completely cured.

JOSEPH PHILLION, Quebec, Que.

Smartie:—Which would you rather be, the fool you look, or the fool you are?'

Quiette:—Really, I am so dissatisfied with myself don't you know that I'd rather be the simple fool you are.'

Consumptives, cheer up! You are not going to die, if you will but take Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, "the kind that cures" coughs, colds, bronchitis and the first stage of consumption. Every bottle warranted. No oily taste like others. In big bottles, 50c. and $1 00, at druggists.

MR. FRED. CARTER.

DEAR SIRS.—I was covered with pimples and small boils and after obtaining no relief from a doctor tried different remedies without success until one Sunday I was given 2 of a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, by the use of which the sores were sent flying in about one week's time. Woodstock, Feb. 21, 1894.

A lady tells a story of her new cook. 'I took it for granted she was a Catholic,' she says, 'and on the first Sunday after her arrival I said—'Bridget, at what time do you wish to go to church this morning?' The answer came with a lofty superiority that would have done credit to the disciples of any new dispensation! 'Oi'll not be goin' to church at all, ma'am. Feth, it's meself that's what they calls an egnawstic'

Mrs. Hicks—Why, Mrs. Dix, how pale you look!

Mrs. Dix—Yes. I've been having lots of trouble lately with a boil.

Mrs. Hicks—I'm so sorry! Was it on your neck?

Mrs. Dix—No; it was on my husband.

'Will you be my wife?'

'I cannot answer such a question as that without taking time to consider.'

'Pardon my impetuosity. How long must I wait?'

'I think there will be time for you to close the doors and turn down the light a little.'

Sunday-School Teacher—Tommy, I was shocked to hear you swearing so dreadfully at that strange boy as I came in.

Tommy—I couldn't help it ma'am. He was making fun of our kind of religion.
