In a recent artic's on Brain and Nerve Ex-haustion, Dr M. H. Baird of New York says:-"It is within the memory of the present generation that insanity was thought to be not a dis-case, but an abnormal physical condition, a vicious temper or emotion that needed only atrong will to control. To day we are quite safe in saying that insanity is indeed only another, and in some respects, more serious form of nernervous system should be kept in a state of health. The victim of nervous disease will find a Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic a remedy prculiarly adapted to his or her condition It by improving the digestion and enriching the blood, enabling it to rebuild the wasted tissues. REDUCED TO A SHADOW.

Saved By Strawberry Extract. GENTLEMEN .- Feeling it my duty to give you an unsolicited testimony for the direct benefit have received in my family from the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, let me say that while we resided at Fenwick, Ont, my little daughter had an attack of Dysentery or Bloody Flux, by which she was reduced to a mere shadow and became quite helpless. Fortunately my family physician advised the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as he neither had nor knew of anything better for this neither had nor knew of anything better for this dreadful disease, and therefore we gave it an impartial trial. I am happy to say that less than quarter of a bottle caused the flow of blood and cots to cease, and the child promptly recovered. We always have had Extract of Strawberry in the house since to be read for the same since to be same since to the same since the same since to the same same since to the same since t the house since to be ready for amergencies com-mon to children in summer from the effects of fruit, etc. I would just as soon think of losing my right eye as being deprived of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.
