Miscellaneous.

'You look pale,' said the sharp-nosed 'I feel pale,' sighed the fluffy girl; but I am bappy, anyway. You know that stingy little Chollie Tapetie? Well. he did open his heart enough to take me to the food show, and of course I sam-pled the samples. What are samples for? And after I had eaten this and drunk that and the other till I thought I just couldn't stand any more we started home. Then he thought he saw his chance. So he asked me to have some

'And did you accept?' asked the sharp-nosed girl? 'Accept? I ate three plates. With cake. And lemonade. They had to call the doctor for me, and papa scolded, ob, awfully, but I made that little wretch spend his money anyway.'

A STRANGE CASE.

Cured of Blood Poisoning.

DETROIT, Mich., July 1-A very curious in-ident has occured here, and one which will be of continental interest. Mr. Hugh McCarron, a well known notary public, has been a sufferer for many years from a peculiar form of blood poisoning inducing the most frightful pains in the breast and back. The best doctors were the breast and back. The best doctors were consulted without being able to give any relief and Mr. McCarron decided that his case was hopeless. He was finally recommended to make a trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and did so with the faint hope that they might have some effect in his case, the peculiar nature of which did not lead him to associate it with kidney complaint. To his surprise the effects of the remedy were noticeable from the very first, and he is now thoroughly restored to health by this means.
