Manitoba.

There is a good deal of speculation over the action of Mr. Greenway in adjourning the Manitoba Legislature until the second week in May. But a little consideration wil show that this proceeding is not unreason able. Mr. Greenway could not be expected upon receipt of the remedial order, to take the government of Manitoba, but the Legis in Minneapolis, Minn, met at the resilature and the popular feeling, which he has dence of Mrs. Benjamin Beveridge and or- T. of T, intend giving the public a rich ago with all its contents; loss about $2000. able nor willing to do anything a rejection of the pominion government immediately upon its presentation would show inconsiderate haste, and, therefore, bad judgment, and would be little short of rejecting a diplomatic proposal with insulting promptitude.
