TELL TALES!

Take a bunch of time tables of the different railroads and open them up; inside each one you'll find a map. Look at the different maps and what do you see? Between any two prominent cities in the country where two or more roads run, each map will show you that this particular road is the most direct route, and all the other roads go in a round about way. Take the figures then and look them over, and you'll see that some particular road is shorter than the rest or its trains do get there ahead of others—True, you may get there by any of the roads, but there's always one best way. It's like this in reading about goods: Every store blows its own horn. They each claim to give you more or better for your money than the others. How can you tell? Look at the figures. See how they all "get there." Go in and see the results in the different stores.—See what you can get with your money. There's always one best store in every town. See if you can get as good Canadian Frieze Ulsters at $5, $7, $9, $11, as we offer. See if their $12 Blue-Black Cheviot Suits are as heavy wool, or made as nicely, or will fit as well as what we are showing these days. It pays whether you're buying tickets or clothes.

F. C. B. CONFERENCE.

The Conference of the Free Christian Baptist denomination began the 63rd Annual meeting on Friday afternoon, the 4th inst., in the Woodstock church. As customary, the first session was in the evening, the first meeting for the larger only. The present meeting is being held under circumstances more than ordinarily auspicious. There is no likelihood of any difficult or burning question coming up to interfere with the harmony of the Conference; the church in which the sessions are held is one of the finest of the denomination in New Brunswick; the pastor, Rev. O. T. Phillips, is most happily settled, both as regards the high esteem in which he is held among his own people and also as to the respect so generally manifested for him in the sister churches. The people of Woodstock take no second place in extending hospitality to those in attendance; the attendance is larger than usual, and under these and like favorable conditions, this 63rd Conference should be all that the most ardent and anxious members could desire.

While many of the ministers attending are young men, or those yet in the full vigor of manhood, yet the number of the older champions of the church present and taking an active part in the proceedings, is quite considerable. One of these is the venerable Joseph Noble, who has missed but one Annual Conference of the 63, and the cause of his non-attendance at the one referred to, was owing to the death of his wife occurring at that time.

The elders conference, Friday afternoon, was presided over by Moderator Rev. Thos Vanwert, and Rev. J. T. Parsons, New Brunswick. The conference sermon was preached in the evening by Rev. Joseph T. Parsons. There was a large congregation, and the service was an impressive one. The interior of the church has recently been beautifully painted, the splendid pipe organ re-tuned, and as considerable work had been done to enhance the attractiveness by arranging a wreath of flowering plants about the pulpit, the whole effect of the interior was nearly ideal.

Miss Fisher played with skill a suitable piece on the organ, at the beginning of the service; her father, Mr. John Fisher, was organist for the choir. After the opening hymn, 676, had been sung by the choir, which rendered the music with an inspiring effect, Mr. Parsons read a paper on "The Atonement," and Rev. Mr. Foster followed in prayer. Rev. Mr. Swin gave out hymn 762. Mr. Parsons chose for his text Acts 5: 41, "And they departed from the Council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name."

Before discussing the subject matter of his text, the reverend gentleman made touching reference to his former relations with that congregation. Thirty-five years ago he had been pastor there, though he saw a number of familiar faces, yet many had passed over and joined the great majority. They had borne the heat and burden of the day, had planted and watered but had passed on before. He prayed God that they might all be united in the church above.

The service was eminently well fitting the occasion, showing that, though the servants of God are called upon to pass under the rod of trial and affliction, they have a sustaining power given them by the Holy Spirit. The apostles endured great suffering, physical and mental—whippings, imprisonments, sufferings and jailing, yet they rejoiced in their affliction. Before the day of Pentecost, Peter had denied his Lord, and after being fully endowed with the Holy Spirit, he maintained his Master's cause against the combined forces of the Sanhedrin and the heathen mob. While the two apostles were singing and praying in the prison, the angel set them free. The Council would not agree to terms, to get their liberty on condition of refraining from preaching in that name, but no. The answer was given that he sounded down the streets, and it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye."

The efforts to stamp out the truth had been unavailing. In these early days the following of Christ was small, and if his enemies could not stop the trickling stream, they hoped to stop the rolling flood. The march was irresistible, and might they not feel assured that soon all lands would know the name of the Lord and all knees would bend in His praise.

On Saturday, at 10 a. m., the General Conference met in Social Conference. Rev. C. T. Phillips presided. The attendance was large and, for over two hours, the time was fully occupied by edifying testimonies. The meeting was generally admitted to have been one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the year held in connection with the Annual Conference.

The first session for the transaction of business opened in the afternoon; Rev. G. F. Currie, the Moderator, presided. After opening, D. McLeod Vance, Esq., the recording secretary, called the roll to which the following responded:—
