A Good Report.

If report be true, and in this case it seems to have the essential, our Hartland friends pect of having a bridge built by the Local parishes of Brighton and Wakefield. Hon. week and has, it is said, promised to have sister, Mrs. E. W. Miller. surveys made and plans prepared for a bridge and to secure the means for its erection by a special vote of the Legislature at its next week visiting all the different sections of the County inspecting roads, bridges, etc.

A Nice Drive.

At this season it is a very delightful drive farms and scenery lying between the town pastor of the Methodist church of Somereet, and Canterbury and Southampton.

Esl River is much improved in the appearance of its buildings and surroundings. The trustees of schools have purchased, and are having thoroughly repaired, the Grosvenor public hall building. The Grosvenor octtage has been transformed into the "Hotel Meductic," where Elisha Moore, postmaster, offers an inviting resting place and refreshing home for travellers.

It is in this village that Mr. Fred. Moore has his family, where he, occasionally, when business cares permits, rests in his attractive and well appointed house. Orossing the river by an excellent wire ferry we enter upon the fertile plains and uplands of Upper and Middle Southampton, where in well conditioned farms and in plea-sant homesteads dwell the Akerley's, Brooks', Grant's, Brown's, Tompkins', Oldham's et al. Here in Central Southampton flourishes a cheese factory which manufactures a daily average of 4,000 pounds of milk, this being an increase over last year of some 10,000
