A Warning Cry. One of the most terrible warnings against cigarette smoking was given not long ago, by a chorister boy in one of the Brocklyn churches, who died in great agoony at St. Joho's hospital. This is the story as given in the MA. Q. T. A. Corner.

Almost bis last words were: "Let any boy who smokes cigarettes look at me now and know how much I have suffered, and he will never put another into his mouth." He was a bright boy, an exquisite singer and had many friends. He lived with his grandmother and worked in a chandelier factory. Here is his story as he sold it to his nurse, Sister Cornelia: " To me he confessed that this trouble had originated from eigarette smoking. Some days he said he smoked twenty cigarettes. At first he kept his grandmother in ignorance of his indulgence. The coet of the general election in England in 1892 was £958,522, an average of a little over four shiltings a vote. In 1874 the cost of each vote was between fourteen and fitten shillings, and in 1859 over £1. The most costly election England ever saw was that of Wilberforce at Hull in 1807. It is said to have cost altogether £500,000.

Scotland, where I was employed as a cierk a storm came up, and I had a pretty rough time of it for a while. I evidently must have time of it for a while. I evidently must have injured myself internally, although I felt nothing wrong at the time. On my way home, however, I fell helpless on the street, and had to be conveyed home in a cab, as my legs were utterly unable to hold me up. I was confined to bed for several days in the same helpless condition, when I rallied, but found that my urine was of a strange reddish hue. I called in a physician, who prescribed,

All this time my urine was tainted with blood, although I was suffering no pain, but this abnormal condition was a source of continual anxiety. I finally went to the General Hospital, where the In Outario, a farmer, a Seventh Day physician in charge advised me to stay, which I did. After remaining there for five Adventist, was arrested for working on Sunday, but got off on the ground that the Sunday law does not apply to farmers; but a laborer, working for the same farmer, was arrested and fined $5 for the same offence. The question is suggested was the man more guilty than his master? and another, should the law place a man under disabilities for acting in accordance with his conscientious reli-Adventist, was arrested for working on Sunday, but got off on the ground that in accordance with his conscientious religious views in such a matter.
