CONNELL STREET. BOYER BROS.

Bryan O'Lynn had no boots for to wear. So he went to Woodstock to get him a pair. I'll have one pair thick and one pair of thin,

Says he the right one I've yet not tound out: I want Fred. Dickinson's, I buy only from him For he sells the cheapest, says Bryan O'Lynn.

He went to the corner of Connell and Main street. He met Dickinson's sign, which was a great treat, He lifted the latch and Fred. stood within. I've found you, at last, says Bryan O'Lynn.

The ones we praised mostly hand-sewed at the side;

You have Felt Boots of all kinds from Quebec and Berlin, Sure you have boots for the millions, says Bryan O'Lynn. He bought him his boots which, of course, was no trash; He paid down his money, for we sell for cash;

But buy from Fred. Dickinson, says Bryan O'Lynn. If there is a leak or a rip in the side of your shoe, Just take it to Dickinson's, that's all you need do. He'll peg it or patch it, just while you are in,

No matter which way to the town you come in, Your sure to see Dickinson's, says Bryan O'Lynn.
