Asthma and Bronchitis Cured

C. E. Puttner, Esq., Ph. M.:

Sir,—I consider it my duty, not only to yourself, but to my fellow creatures who are suffering from Asthma and Bronchitis, as I had for some time previous to using your "Emulsion of Con Liver Oil with Hypophosphites," to give my testimony to the most wonderful good effect it had. Having suffered for some time with Asthma and Bronchitis, accompanied with great nervous exhaustion, and having carefully read your Essay on the combination and uses of your Emulsion, I was persuaded to give it a trial, and on using two bottles I began to receive great benefit and relief, and after using three bottles I was completely revived and am to-day perfectly free from either Asthma or Bronchitis, and my nervous system much invigorated and built up. I have found it very pleasant and palatable, and with no taste of oil whatever, and can with great confidence recommend it to those suffering as I did previous to taking your compound. I am, yours, &c.

The Reason Why. To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel: Mr Muuro, in the Town Hall. Sabbath rening, referred to the town of H ulton a being in a prohibition State, but that th reason the law was not enforced was not the fault of prohibition but because the residents were not as active as they might be in the suppression of the traffic. I think if Mr work again Munro lived in Houlton he would have a Our scho little different story to tell. And in place of putting all the blame on the citizens and no McIntyre. doubt they are to blame some, he would tell the people of Woodstock and Carleton Co. that it is the low places at the Boundary and relatives here.

Carleton County the Best.

To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel As a former Woodstocker I would advise oung men at the present time to stay at home, unless they have a first-class trade and are strictly sober in every particular, as there are a hundred inducements for a young man stock. Here in Boston, where I have been situated for the past few years, there are 25 applicants for every vacant situation, and this has been the means of greatly reducing wages in every trade to a barely living existence, as in a place like Boston expenses are very high; may be some salaries you hear of are flattering, but they have to spend most house. The warehouse was literally blown of them for expenses.

In the establishment that I represent I have secured situations for two Carleton Co.

boys having good trades, trustworthy and sober, but who could not not secure work. My advice is, if you intend to come at all, wait until spring as times are always much better that time of year than any other.

My advice also, is, if you wish work do not go to large cities, as they are overflowing with idle men of all trades. Stay at home wait until spring as times are always much with idle men of all trades. Stay at home and work as hard as you would have to if killed and several were hurled back some SENTINEL, and I know you will succeed. A WOODSTOCK BOY.

I AM DYEING.

I am dyeing, Edith, dyeing, Tints of crimson, bright and fast; Shades, too, dark as Pluto's regions, And they cannot help but last. Let me tell you how I do it.

Let me whisper in your ear, Diamond Dyes is all my secret; You can do the same, my dear Though my clothes get worn and dingy And with stains are spotted o'er,

Though they look as fit for nothing, I can make them good once more. Though I have not many dollars To expend on garments new, 1 can dress as well as any, And I know that you can, too.

Let not fashion's servile minions Scorn the garments thus made o'er: 'Twas no dyer's hand that made them, I have done the same before.

Consigning infants to the grave, who had en-deared themselves to us by their innocence, their helpleseness and their prattle, is always a rending of tenderest ties. Closing the tomb over the young, out down in the flower of their days, is always a sad task, as we brood over blighted bopes and beffled aspirations, and vainly anticipated usefulness, never to be realised on earth. Marshalling to some city of the dead, with all the pomp and pageant-ry of woe, all that is mortal of departed Worth, summoned away to the great here after in the vigor of life, awakens in the heart of the mourner the profoundest reflections on the vanities of buman life and the futility of the schemes of the ambitious, no less than of the dissipation of the deams, even of the beautiful and the true.
