A fruit of which the public

Do not, in general, know.

Will yet be well aware;-

A lovely, sweet, and luscious,

Quite hardy, golden pear.

I have seen it, and I ve raised it,

We have nothing elee to equal

This lovely golden pear.

Has scarce a fault at all,

The size is rather small:-

And when they're ripe, and golden, I find some blushing red,

The ancients might have said.
