Miscellaneous.

"Isn't this perfectly delightful?" she asked, as they sat on the sofa with their arms entwined and the brilliant moon on his mustache not very far from the crimson palm on her lips. "Dorothy," he replied, "I know that your mother is listening on the stairs, that your father is waiting in the passage with a cane, that the bulldog is loose in the front yard and that your little brother is under the sofa, how can I say that it is delightful?"

He—"Carrie do you know, darling that you are the only girl I ever—"
She—"There that will do. Don't tell me any of your fairy stories."
He—"But hear me out. You are the only girl, I say, that I ever thought was good enough to have me."
She—"Which shows I was made for you. Yes, Charlie, I think you may buy that ring as soon as you like."

AN EXCEPTIONAL SALE.
St. John is Much Interested in the Recent Medical Discovery.

St. John, N. B., Aug. 12.—The many cases of urinary catarrh, which have been constantly appearing in the daily press of the Dominion, have for some time awakened the liveliest interest here, and the remedy by which the disease was effected, namely Dodd's Kidney Pills, are obtaining great celebrity throughout the Province. The appearance of the testimonial of Dr. Ross and McCormick stating the benefits which they had personally derived from their use was considered a sufficient sign of the merit of the remedy, and the other interesting and wonderful cases which have since been chronicled have caused the apothecary to have an exceptional sale.

The husband was complaining and the wife was busy about, hunting for the sunny places. "Life is a burden," he sighed.
"Yes, dear," she answered, "but you know we couldn't exist very well without it." Then he smiled and took a new hold.

Don't let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption. Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself. The breathing apparatus must be kept clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of SMITH'S CHAMOMILE PILLS. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "I wish to have it themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

Nelson—"Well, I'm the luckiest chap in the world."
Stanley—"How so?"
Nelson—"It appears that Madge broke with me about the same time she did with Jack. Boodles, and now she's sent me back his presents instead of my own."

Irene—"Isn't it curious how innocent George Ferguson is?" They say he never kissed anybody in his life, and doesn't know how to kiss.
Laura—"There isn't a word of truth in it! He has—that is, he—why, I should think he would know how by this time."

"I trust," began the steady customer, "I don't," responded the grocer, decisively. "Somewhat the conversation languished after that."

"Gift Enterprises"
Seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing if possible. Grocers get a box full of soap and are offered all sorts of "Gift Enterprises" for their children. It is a well-known fact, however, that genuine articles in this day of competition pass no fancy. WELLS SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.

Mrs. Chophash (who keeps summer boudoirs)—Mr. Gallop, you seem to know everything. Can you tell us what makes the Tower of Pisa lean?
Gallop—"Been living in a country boarding house, I shouldn't wonder."
