The report was received and the committee authorized to expend amount of proceeds from sale of old fire eagine on posting names of streets.

Oa motion of Leighton, seconded by Bailey, the Poor committee was authorized to see that proper care was taken of a certain child left with Mrs. Morrissey, by a woman calling herself Mrs. McDonald

Carr desired to refer to the Board of Health, which body was not slow in making demands upon the Council and they, the Council, should make demands of the Board of Health. He affirmed that the Board of Health was shamefully negligent of its duty of which there was in many of the streets abundant and notorious evidence. Right near the residence of the chairman of the board, there was a place where a sewer oozed up right through the ground. They should do their duty better or resign; they urged upon the Council the necessity for sewers in order to protect the health of the town, while neglecting to see that unbealthy nuisances, subject to their own inspection and ocetrol,

The prices in the country market do not change very much from week to week Some days business is real brisk, but probably the next day there is little or nothing doing. However there is little or nothing doing. However there always happens to be a sufficient quantity of everything to supply the demand. The strawberry season is about over. Of course they will hang on a few days, but raspberries, blueberries and gooseberries are fast taking their place. The following prices rule: best beef 6 to 8 cents; veal 5 to 6; pork 6½ to 7½; lamb 7 to 8; mutton 5 to 6; chickens 40 to 60 per pair; turkey 12 to 14; butter 10 to 17 in tubs, 14 to 20 for roll: eggs 11 to 12; peas 70 to 80c per 20 for roll; eggs 11 to 12; peas 70 to 80c per bushel; new potatoes 60c per bushel. As a general thing farmers and store keep-ers throughout this province find great difficulty in securing the services of a thoroughly reliable agent in St John. It is not always convenient for them to bring their produce to market; it costs considerable and then they cannot always find time to leave home even if they would. In such cases a reliable agent, to whom goods can be sent who will agent, to whom goods can be sent, who will make quick sales and speedy and correct returns, is what many of the readers of this
