Christmas Bells.

To rich and poor sweet Ohristmas cheer.

Ring out the merry Christmas chime,

Proclaim the message far and near,

Peace and good will in every clime,

Loudly proclaim o'er land and sea What love divise for men did plan,

Surcease of grief to those that mourn,

Rest to the weary, heaven to win.
A fuller life tey and death's bourne

Peal forth with no uncertain tone

That love leaves none beneath the ban,

And they alone are blessed that own Their duty to their fellow man.

Proclaim as loudly as ye can The tidings glad to old and young,

Peace upon earth, good will to man,
