Dominion Parliament.

Parliament was formally opened on the 15th by the following speech: Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate...

By the sudden and lamented death of the late Right Honourable Sir John Thompson, Canada has sustained a grievous loss.

The recent action of the Imperial Parliament enabling the various Australasian Governments to enter into preferential trade relations with the other self-governing Colonies of the Empire...

In conformity with a recent judgment of the Lord of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council...

During the period that has elapsed since the last Session of Parliament, there has been an opportunity of visiting many portions of the Dominion...

The Government of Newfoundland having intimated its desire to renew negotiations looking to the admission of that colony into the Dominion of Canada...

Measures relating to bankruptcy and insolvency, and to joint stock companies will be considered before you.

On the 15th, Mr. Bennett of East Essex moved, and Mr. Helly of Quigonit seconded, the address in reply...

Hon. Mr. Laurier followed. He criticized the delay in calling the house together, and referred to the two fighting factions into which the government had been divided during the winter.

He decided the policy of the government. He favored the union of Newfoundland, but the French spoke question would be decided later.

Turning to the Manitoba question, he said he would deal with it at a later day.

He found the remedial order had one meaning in Ontario constitutions and another meaning in Protestant constitutions.

The mover of the address said all that had been done so far to hand over the case to the Manitoba government, while the well-known expression of regret that the government had done so much for the Catholic minority of the province...

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures a much about Hood's Sarsaparilla. I determined to try it, and got a half-dozen bottles, four of which entirely cured him."

What we ask you to do is to "take stock of them," compare them with the graduates of other colleges. We will be satisfied with the result.

Paine's Celery Compound Makes Them Well.

After Suffering For 18 Years The Great Spring Medicine Cures Mrs. G. H. Parker.

Eighteen years of intense suffering, disappointment and anxiety!

Failure after failure with doctors and southern medicines made life dreary for Mrs. G. H. Parker, Wilton, N. B.

After some years, Mrs. Parker was induced to give Paine's Celery Compound a fair and honest trial.

What happy result! Such a victory over suffering! Complete cure and renewed health!

The following is Mrs. Parker's unaltered testimony:—

"I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia for nearly eighteen years; those sufferings at times were so bad that I would give up the idea of living."

After having tried every known remedy, and different physicians, and receiving no help, I was recommended to try Paine's Celery Compound, which I had been using for the past four months. I am happy to say that I am a different woman and completely cured. I can recognize my Paine's Celery Compound to be my friends, for it has given me hundreds of dollars to me."

ST. JOHN LETTER. (From our Regular Correspondent) St. John, April 22nd, '95.

The sporting clubs are organizing for the summer. The outlook for the year in every branch is brighter than it has been for a long time.

There is good reason for believing that base ball will be revived. The Y. M. C. A. will hold an excursion to Sumner in connection with the Montreal Association on May 21st.

Three thousand dollars worth of settlers left the United States during the past month. J. R. Kiel, Collector of Customs at the port of St. John was laid up a few days last week.

I went down to see him a few days ago and found him very much improved. "How many persons do you employ?" he asked, laughingly. I said that I did not know, but that the number of applicants was large.

"Well, I have been laid up two days," he said, "and I believe ten persons have signified their willingness to accept the office in case of my demise." The collector is not going to die this time however as I saw him on the street again to-day.

Mayor Robertson gave a dinner in the Aberdeen hotel on Thursday evening last to the members of the council, the councillors elect and several of his Workshop's intimate friends. It was the first dinner of the kind held in this hotel. The affair passed off very satisfactorily.

A day or two ago I had occasion to drop into the store of Sherrin & Whitaker, King St. It is one of the best established establishments in the city. They keep everything that is required, from a nutmeg grater up to a large range. The variety of knives, forks, pans, pots, kettles, spoons, and little labor saving inventions, to be found in this store would make glad the heart of the average country housewife.

Four flats in the building and each one is so well stocked with goods of the description mentioned, that Mr. Whitaker said he did not know what he was going to do with his consignments of goods he had just ordered. In the last flat is a tin shop, where nearly all the tin ware sold by him are manufactured. Messrs. Sherrin & Whitaker are branching out every year. Their business is wholesale as well as retail. They have travelled on the road constantly and their list is constantly widening. They have a factory on King Street East, for the manufacture of mantles. Their stock of bicycles is large and well selected.

Two well known St. John newspaper men, A. M. Belding of the Sun and H. A. Woodworth of Progress, the latter formerly of Sackville and Parrsboro, have in press a book of humorous sketches in prose and verse, to be issued about the first week in May. It will be entitled, "A Heart Broken Corner" and "Other Wonders," and will be something new in the way of literary efforts in the lower provinces. Both men have been contributors to well known Canadian and foreign periodicals, but the present series of sketches have not hitherto been published. It ought to make a hit.

The result of the civic election which was held on Tuesday last, was not a great success for the friends of the Tax Reduction Association. Out of a possible fifteen, they received only two men. The Tax Reduction was organized last year. Their cry attracted the public attention. The majority of the electors were anxious to have their taxes reduced and the members of the Association promised that this should be done. "Place us in office," they said, "and we will turn several of your useless, big salaried officials out of office. We will cut the expenditure down and you will have to pay less taxes." Well, twelve out of a possible fifteen, the reductionists were placed in office including a tax reduction mayor, George Robertson. The new council did not turn out a high salaried official out of office, neither did it cut the expenditure down.

The new members may not have been to blame however for they investigated every department of the civic machinery thoroughly and only a later doing so did they come to the conclusion that St. John had as good a form of government as it was possible for it to have.

But the election, finding that the Tax Reduction council had not reduced their taxes, turned away from it coldly and voted for the opposition. Mayor Robertson was re-elected by acclamation.

A few Sundays ago a Congregational minister, residing in this city, presided a sermon, in which he said he hoped the day would come when he could exchange pulpits with Bishop Sweney and preach in the Catholic cathedral.

This coming from a Congregationalist as he had been a member of the Congregational and the sermon was discussed and, in many cases, severely criticized by a number of unfortunate individuals, whose horizon does not extend beyond the doors of their own particular church.

A few days after the sermon referred to was delivered, the gentleman received a string of bonds and a letter from the Catholic priest. He had been to see several times since, and it is understood that the members of his congregation are as badly as ever.
