A Roman lawyer on a business trip to Athens the first time met Diogenes on the street.

'My good friend,' he said, accosting him, 'may I inquire why you are wandering around in the daytime with a lantern?'

'I am looking for an honest man,' said the cynic, eyeing him sharply.

'Well, I like that,' laughed the lawyer.

'Like what?' inquired Diogenes.

'Like to see an old party like you poking around a big town with a lantern looking for an honest man.'

'Well you don't have to,' retorted the old man, 'you notice that I don't blow out the light and stop searching when I meet you, sir.'

Thus did the cynic sometimes get even.

'Your son spends a good deal of time on his bicycle,' said the scholarly neighbor.

'Yes, indeed,' replied the boy's mother, 'I don't know what he would do without his wheel.'

'Aren't you afraid of typhosis bicyclistarum?'

'Doctor,' she said, with cold dignity, 'you are old enough to know one thing.'

Why, madam, to what do you allude?

'To the fact, sir, that calling names never does any good.'

THE TIDE TURNS.

Great Improvement in the Health of a Well-Known Peterboro Lady.

PETERBORO, Sept 30—General satisfaction is expressed here at the greatly improved condition of health of Mrs. K. Sephens, the well known music teacher of this town. Her friends have been much exercised over her condition for a long time and a number of remedies have been tried during the ten years that she had been a martyr to a complication of complaints, which recently became very severe. She suffered frightfully with pains in the back, nervous prostration and swelling of the limbs. She has been taking the new remedy for kidney troubles, Dodd's Kidney Pills, and has already experienced the most beneficial results.

Whisky,' said the temperance orator in tones of much earnestness, as he pointed his finger at the audience, 'whisky has killed more men than bullets.'

'All the same,' said the watery-eyed citizen near the middle aisle. 'I'd a heap rather a man filled me with whiskey than with bullets.'

The way a number of people did who put off ordering a Crown Mower until the 10th of July and found them all sold.

Thanking those of our customers who obtained their Crowns, for their patronage, we wish to call their attention as well as those who got left, to the fact that we have only 24 Little Giant Threshers for sale this season, and that if they wish to purchase, it is advisable that their orders be placed as soon as possible. The reputation our threshers have attained has placed them so far above all competitors that they have become the standard Threshers of the Maritime Provinces, and it is unnecessary for us to attempt to describe the numerous points wherein they excel. They are well known to thresh fast, save grain, and clean it in a first-class shape. We guarantee them to be the most durable machines in the market, costing less than $5,00 per year for repairs. "Fine Feathers Make Fine Birds"

Women are not all Beautiful but all women are attractive who are beautifully dressed.

Beauty unadorned may do in poetry, but the nicely fitting gown is the desire of every true woman. Priestley's dress fabrics have done much to realize a woman's ideals by offering, in their texture, appearance, fit and wear, a character and distinction, which no other dress goods, however excellent, have quite attained to. And now Priestley's have something new. The "Eudora" is all the rage. It is even better than the Henriettas so much admired. The "Eudora" has something which the Henrietta lacks—to wit: greater width, greater weight, and a superior dust shedding quality. And then it has an exquisite surface which gives it an almost regal presence. Wrapped on "The Varnished Board," and the name, Priestly, stamped on every five yards.

MRS. W. D. CAMBER.
Opposite Town Hall.

Bashful Bachelor, nervous and fidgety, trying to remember a speech he had been rehearsing for an hour previously. Helpful maid, anxious and expectant.

B. B.—My dearest I—I have long wished to tell you that I am full—I mean my heart is full—my palpitating heart—I—mean—your—your smiles—dearest, would shed—would shed—

H. M.—Perhaps, dear, we could live in a flat at first, then we should not need a wood-shed. (The all important date was fixed within five minutes.)

A readiness to apologize for an offense is not worth much unless it is accompanied by a disposition not to repeat the injury.

Johnny and Jenny were quarreling and Jenny began to cry.

Oh well, said Johnny, 'don't cry—I'll take back all the mean things I've have said.'

'Yes, you'll take 'em back,' sobbed the girl, 'so you can have 'em just ready to use over again!'

'Mamma, ain't Deacon Dalton a funny man?'

'Why, Jimmy, what did he do?'

'In church to-day he took his hat around and showed it to everybody.'

She—Yes, I am very fond of pets.

He—Indeed! What, may I ask, is your favorite animal?

She (frankly)—Man.

A POINTED APHORISM.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. That is because his nerve energy is exhausted faster than nature can renew it.

Then Jack, whether he be boy or man, needs rest and a course of Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic to renew his vitality and make him fit for work once more.

The country is filled with people who are overworked, or who overwork themselves. To these Hawker's Tonic is a boon and a blessing. Its use, if accompanied with common sense precautions as to diet and habits, will give tone to the stomach and nerves, and vigor to the mind and body. It renews health. Dyspepsia, general debility or Nervous Prostration is overcome and life becomes once more a pleasure to be enjoyed rather than a burden to be borne. This remedy is beyond question the one thing needful when a man or woman is suffering from any disease arising from Nerve Exhaustion, Bad Digestion or Impoverished Blood. It is sold at Fifty Cents per bottle or six bottles for $2.50, and is manufactured only by the Hawker Medicine Co (Ltd) St John, N. B., and New York City.

Mistress—Jane, you had a man in the kitchen last night.

Maid—Yes'm. I'd have brought him into the sitting room and introduced you, but he was so busy talking to me that I forgot all about it.

In Your Blood

Is the cause of that tired, languid feeling which afflicts you at this season. The blood is impure and has become thin and poor. That is why you have no strength, no appetite, cannot sleep. Purify your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will give you an appetite, tone your stomach and invigorate your nerves.

HOOD'S PILLS are easy to take, easy in action and sure in effect. 25c.

Matron—Do not be vulgar, even though poor; there is a deal of difference in the way a sentence is pronounced.

Tramp—Indeed there is, madam. I'd rather listen to you all day then hear a few words from the highest dignitary at court.

"How to Cure all Skin Diseases."

Simply apply SWAYNE'S OINTMENT. No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose, &c, leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for SWAYNE'S OINTMENT. Lyman Sons & Co, Montreal, Wholesale Agents.

He was kneeling at her feet and saying: 'My precious sweet, life lingers to me as a petunia streaked with the glorious golden fretting of a soul which knoweth no love, so—'

'Oh, Jim,' she said, 'how strong you smell of onions!'

Valuable to Know.

Consumption may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all pulmonary troubles.

'Ella,' said Marion, as they were seated on the veranda of their country house, 'I went fishing with George this morning.'

'Did you? What did you catch?'

'I caught George.'

All Recommend It.

Ask your physician, your druggist and your friends about Salton's Cure for Consumption. They will recommend it. Sold by Gardea Bros.

'My wife is an expert in handling a rifle. Put up a coin for a target, and she'll hit it in the centre every time.

'That's nothing. My wife rifles my pockets of all the coin in them and never misses a dime.'

Consumption, LaGrippe, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung Diseases are cured by Shiloh's Cure. Sold by Gardea Bros.

'It isn't what ye do,' remarked Clarence Fitz Hautbeau, 'that always counts in determining a man's prosperity.'

'No,' replied Reginald de Bumme, 'it's who ye do, more'n what ye do, dat signifies.'
