This will be a great help in rounding out the exhibit. as New Brunswick has never had a good representation of this famous dairy breed and nany farmers will be anxious to learn of the practical value and actual appearance of the

It will be remembered that Conneillor Cliff, of Kingsclear, sowed three bushels of wheat in the epring, from which he recently thrashed 93 bushels. It would appear that there are also some fertile lands in the vicinity of Southsmpton. Mr. Zemira Way, of that place, sewed three pints of wheat last spring, from which he thrashed out this fall a little over four bushels. A veritable record smasher. Who can beat that ?- Gleaner.
