The Carleton Sentinel. SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1897.

Building, King Street, up stairs.

speaking of Prof. F. W. Watson, says: Prof. Watson has gained notoriety in this line of work, and easily stands at the head among those in the South who have experimented with the X Rays.

The Auburn Argus, Auburn, Kings Co., Wash .:-

"In the balloting contest for manager of the Odd Fellows' Home which was conducted by the Washington Odd Fellow, the sucpleased that he won the contest and, while it does not ensure his securing the coveted position, they hope he will get it, for he is in every way fitted for the place. The fact that he won over several persons in the contest who are high up in Odd Fellowship, at. tests the popularity of Mr. Connell in this jurisdiction."

1837-1897.

We don't wish to intrude amid the Sexagenarian celebrations of the reign of our good And still we are humble and only charge $1 a year in advance.

The Celebration.

As a fitting preliminary to the Jubilee Celebration was the throwing to the breeze from a flag staff of graceful proportions, risa large 15 foot dominion flag, on the afterthe building, the trustees supplying the other W H Everett, Mr Saunderson, Allan Smith, R. v O T Phillips, Arthur Bailey, Queen Ho terest was shown in the Queen's Jubilee, un til within a very short period of the time for keeping such had come, but during las burning flame, and everybody became vigorous artizan and the whole town a may well be doubted if there was a place in the Dominion, of the same population, which either in the character or extent of its decorated. Hook and Ladder cart, with ations, the creditable display of its trades and members with forement of the same population, which the Dominion, of the same population, which the Company. No 1 steam engine, with crew. The Queen still sitting in thus set forth:—"The Queen still sitting in the same population, which the research and thought, brought by the Archbishops and bishops left the altar, the Dean of Westminster brought the crown and the Archbishop taking it of him, revertage.

The Queen still sitting in thus set forth:—"The Queen still sitting in the same population, which the research and thought, brought by the Archbishop assisted the Dean of Westminster brought the crown and the Archbishop taking it of him, revertage to the control of the same population, which the country is the control of the same population, which the country is the country in the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the country in the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the country in the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief attraction to the cart No 1, highly decorated, its chief at ations, the creditable display of its trades procession, the grotesqueness of its polymorphians, its good music, large and orderly crowd; in the oration delivered, or in the management of the entire jubilee festivities, excelled those of Woodstock on Tuesday.

In the Character of extent of its decorated house; and members. Hook and Lidder cart, with the Dean of Westminster brought the crown and the Archbishop taking it of him, reverently placed it upon the Queen's head. Impeers and peeresses put on their Coronets, bishops their caps, and kings of Arms their crown.

The following and good fitting and were awarded—to made by T L McRae.

The following prizes were awarded—to peere and peeresses put on their Coronets, bishops their caps, and kings of Arms their crowns.

At moon the W Field Battery, Lieut Collider commanding, fired a Royal Salute of Surface to surpass any thing of the kind before attern to surpass any thing the area to surpass any thing the area to surpass any thing the area to surpass and the roses coloring the land ordaised.

At moon the W Field Battery, Lieut Collider to surpass any the woods was cention to be altern to surpass and the roses coloring the land ordaised.

At moon the W Field Battery, Lieut Collider to commanded to command to come and surpass and the roses coloring the land ordaised.

At mind the lieut Collider to s years reign of Queen Victoria.

The decorations, both public and private, were on the most lavish scale and betokened in their characters the high artistic taste of our citizens as well as their disregard of cost when undertaking to show their sentiments of loyalty or patriotism. From every nook and crannie, from post and tree, window and pinnacle in our town, with scarce an exception, was to be seen some kind of ornamentation, and in many cases of the most elabor. tation, and in many cases of the most elabo- claim on him. He was sure the committee of surgery, and the means discovered for the quent applause. The specialties by Eva within the limits of a weekly newspaper, it would be impossible to give in detail a tations as few other gentlemen could do. description of these ornamentations; at the He now introduced best, we can only speak in very general terms, and even then, in the hurry of getting who, after the applause on his rising had worthy of mention. Touching this point we ceased, said:

Mr. Mayor, Ladies and Gentlemen: report will be made good next week if our Before delivering my oration, allow me to lations by her example have become more ham's Opera House, Monday evening, June attention is called.

SENTINEL Office, in Vanwart's Brick capable of judging, pronounced it the finest mously asked to fill his place, an invitation thing of the kind they had seen. The arch I was enabled to accept as rather unexpected Consult the Direction Label on Your Paper or Wrapper, and if in Arrears please Pay up at once. somely decorated with bunting and respl-nd more than ever identified with your town, following was the programme and result: The Baptist Courser, Greenville, S. C., was a flat platform from which floated flags again to be repeated occasion, will be assowas a large transparent Orown, on either the last thirty years, I have, I trust with side of which was the transparency 18 (V.) acceptance, acted in the judicial capacity of

we have not the space to enter into minute a similar amount for same purpose be raised 2ad, Sullivan 3rd, Glenn 4th. terior of their stores and windows highly Should the citizens prefer a free technica trimmed and when, at night, from win dows and trees the electric lights and Chinese lanterns flashed out their brilliant and many hued lights the sight was one never to b orgotten, and made one feel as though they had been transported to fairy land. An arch of evergreen in front of Hugh Hay & Son's building attracted general attention. Many of the private residences were day lingly arrayed in holiday garb, some of them Queen, whom God bless, but just incidentally remark that this paper, now known as the Carleton Sentinel, was established A. D. 1837, and that was, therefore, among the Component of the contraction of the same and the Carleton Sentinel, was established A. D. 1837, and that was, therefore, among the Goo H Saunders, John Fisher, Carl Ketchfirst important events of Her Majesty's reign. um, F B Carvill, D Hipwell, R B Jones, A Henderson, Charles McLean, Dr Camber, B B Manzer, R K Jones, W Fisher, Archdeacon Neales, Dr Sprague, W B Snow, P

Gillin, W B Belyes, Joshus Corkery, Dr Manzer, Turner House, O G Connell, Dr Connell, J Johnston, G L Holyoke, H Tilley. of Africa, in the islands of the Indian Sea Carr. H V Dalling, A B Connell, J T Garden, W Dibblee, Jas McManus, Harry Smith, prus, in the Mediterranean, in the islands McKinnon's Hotel, A Gilman, J M Fripp, W B Nicholson, H W Bourne. W B Jewett, Woodstock is not impulsive; not always wart, Mr Webber, James Brown, John Mc

> Nicholson. Of these, especially attractive were those of Col F H S Dibblee, A B Connell, Joshue Corkery.
>
> The south side of the bridge down as far as Flemming's store was not behind the peoole on this side of the stream in the extent nd character of their decoration.

The polymorphian procession was comical

The trades procession was marshalled by A G Gilman and Dr G B Manzer, and was as "good as they make," in its characteristics. The order was as follows:-A detachment of the Woodstock Field Judge Stevens, Jas Carr, A D Holyoke; Queen onessitt Hose Co No 2, Houlton, 28 members.

by 4 horses, containing some score of bright Crowns, little girls, advertising Dr G B Manzer, den-On Sunday morning a special Jubilee service was held in St. Luke's church, Archdeacon Neales officiating. Over the public B Nicholson, mounted, marshalled 9 boys on Straight on a thousand Coronets we entrances to the church the British flag was grey horses, each boy bearing on his back one large letter, the whole of which formed the evening, Rev. C. T. Phillips contract the word "Nicholson." Small & Fisher Co wrapped.

In the evening, Rev. C. T. Phillips conducted a special service in the F. C. B. church. This church was elaborately decorated for the occasion with natural flowers, bunting, etc. On the organ, above the organist's seat, was a handsome portrait of the guess, surmounted by a large crown, on one side in large gill letters on a red back grown were the figures 1837, on the other side, 1897. Either side of the arch behind the desk was hung in bunting; the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandments of God, and walk in His halvs the commandment of God, and walk in His halvs the commandment of God, and walk in His halvs the commandment of God, and walk in His halvs the commandment of God, and walk in His halvs the commandment of God, and walk in His halvs the commandment of God, and walk in His halvs the core designed by Dr G B Manzer.

The shoot shounce there provided from the extreme. The shouts which followed the core and mausement were provided from the care the containing and dating Govern ment validing were gaily tunes and Halvs the ceremony were really tunus. The Record office building were gaily tensed in bunting the contained and after the ceremony were really tunus. The Record office building were gaily tunes and Govern ment validing were gaily tunes and oke addressed the audience; some of the expected speakers being absent, Jas. Watte, responded to the call of the chair and made a few remarks. The meeting was a good one in every respect.

While no special service had been announced for in the Methodist church, in the morning Dr. Chapman preached an effective sermon from the text, "Righteousness exemption from the oke addressed the audience; some of the ex- bakery on wheels, and were manufacturing terial, moral, scientific and religious far out-people," and in the evening delivered an address on the lessons to be learned from the life of the Queen. The decorations in the Dibblee commanding, fired a Royal Salute of sermon, made happy reference to the bene-town to day to show the utter falseness of face to face; artists painting with the flash such a slander. He spoke in eulogistic terms on the south side of the bridge. A most at the committee with becoming sense of pro- and promoted by the enterprise and energy tractive eight was presented to the eye as, priety and fittness and with like approval of the deeply lamented Consort of the standing at the Post Office, one looked down the citizens, would, I understand, have asked widowed Queen. the long avenue of trees, the only break in that gentleman to have discharged this promthe view being the occasional arches which spanned the sidewalks. These trees were would from his position as Judge of Probates plause as he proceeded, and loud and heavily festooned with bunting, and almost in the town, his eminent standing as Queen's continued applause at the close of his well every branch was bending beneath the weight Counsel, and from his long residence as a conceived, patriotic oration. The compliment of Chinese lanterns. At the corner of Main citizen in your town, and his constant inter- of closest attention was paid him during the and Florence ville; and this onflow of people and Chapel streets an arch spanned the est in affairs concerning its welfare together street which, for design, architectural sym with his ability as an eloquent speaker, been was given in strong voice and vigorous down the main road and along the banks on the colonies. metry and beauty and harmony of ornamentation could scarcely be surpassed anywhere.

In fact those who had travelled and were level that in his absence I have been unani tered that in his absence I have been unanitered that in his absence I have been unanient in Chinese lanterns. On top of the arch and my very pleasant memory of this never of all colors and symbols, while in the centre ciated with your town and county where for | Quigley.

37—18 (R.) 97. Handsome evergreen arches intertwined with bunting and flags and bear ing appropriate mottoes, spanned either end of the Meduxnakik bridge. The fronts of Fisher to make an announcement which, I nearly all the places of business along Main, am sure, will be received with enthusiasm Queen, King, Carleton, Connell streets were and due appreciation and greatly add to the gaily decorated, each building showing the significance of this day's celebration, and riginality of design and artistic taste of the that is that the Hon Mr. Fisher will donate to occupant, and the whole combining to form the town of Woodstock the sum of five thoua panorama of beauty. Of course some were sand dollars for the purpose of erecting a more elaborately decorated than others, but Free Public Library for this town, provided details. Many of the merchants had the in or subscribed within eighteen months. school then the scheme can be changed. This, if carried out, will be in your town a lasting memorial of the Queen's Jubilee Mr. Mayor, Ladies and Gentlemen.

A Nation's heart is beating full and free his day in commemoration of the nobles best and most virtuous Sovereign Lady who ever yielded a Monarch's Septre; wielded not for one day, but for six decades of unparrelled population. From the heart of the great Rankin, Geo A White, Wolverton House, Honduras, in the Colonies of the Cape, in called—2.30 and 2 50. The Judges were J that is rending the air with exclamation England's long beloved and virtuous Quee From the great battle ships that dot oceans everywhere, from every citadel, tow Ninch, Col Dibblee, Colin Campbell, W I and spire, is unfurled and proudly fluttering in the breeze the old time honored flag th tells of liberty, security and protection. bells of ten thousand churches and cathedre in joyous rivalry and in various tones, a sounding forth the joy and exultation and pride of a free-born people, whose freedom and liberty have been prefreedom and liberty have been preserved and fostered under Victoria's reign. force to help our Jubilee Celebration. Some ing a flag. Then came a banner with four or five hundred came over. The Houltheen the inscription "We will bless the carry to the inscription to th praise; and in the great republic of America, make excellent music and are gentlemanly that noble land where yet lives the blood of fellows. Britain in its veins, and in the foreign King-dome of this earth, the voice of admiration Battery, Lt Col Dibblee commanding, with and of reverence is loud spoken in acknowtwo guns. Barouches containing Mayor Hay, ledgedment of the virtues of England's to the time when the imposing ceremony of the crowning of Victoria in June 28, 1838 two assistants were all the police force on hand, and their services were not called in self big," and later revelations amply sus. Woodstock Hose cart No 2, handsomely took place; the description of that scene is requisition. impression thus formed. It trimmed, and members with foremen. Hose thus set forth :—"The Queen still sitting in their new uniforms just in time to don them

"Soon as the Royal brow received the Crown, Straight on a thousand Coronets we gaze.

observation 1897. Either side of the side year only 44 per cent was raised from this Lindeay, Alex Strong, J. hn Murray, George Victoria adorned the pulpit front, and the shades of the electric lights throughout the auditorium were covered in crepe paper in dresden design.

In St Gertrude's church, Sunday morning, Rev Father Chapman, in the course of his sermon, made happy reference to the beneof the Queen and pointed to the almost unexampled length of her reign. It was a me- lightning; oil lamps exchanged for the daz-

> During Victoria's reign there has been and are capable of handling these plays sucfostered a healthy toleration in religion and cessfully. Exchange. a widely disused education. Domestic re- The above company will appear in Graexpress my appreciation of the courtesy of sacred. Means are encouraged and adopted 28th.

The town had suddenly become a forest. | the Jubilee committee of this town, acting for giving public pleasure and increasing Fir trees, placed some 12 feet apart, lined with the general approval of the citizens, in health, there has been engendered a growboth sides of Main street from the Town Hall having selected me to discharge the pleasant ing feeling of mutual dependence of man on down to the bridge; the whole extent of task of being your orator on this most signiman, and consequently a growing sense of Queen and King streets; a portion of Connell ficant occasion. street, and for a distance down Main street | Had his Hon. Mr. Fisher not been absent, of earth, very much of which was suggested

> (To be continued.) The Judge received many sokens of ap-

Greased Pole - The prize was divided between Woody Scribner and Johnnie Hop, Step and Jump-Norman McLeod (Fredericton) was 1st, Chas. Roderick 2nd, Glenn [Houlton) 2nd, Sullivan 3rd, Clare Bunning High Jump-Roderick 1st, Mc 1 Mile Bicycle Race, (handicap)-Bailey scratch; Glenn, 25 yards; Sallivan an Clare, 50 yards. Bailey came in let, Clare Running Broad Jump—Hay won Roderick 2nd, McLeod 3rd. Mile Race-Dickinson 1st, Vince 2ad Pole Vaul t— Each went over 9 feet.—

Roderick 1st, McLeod 2nd, Viace 3rd.
Putting Shot—Roderick 1st, Corbett 2nd, McLeod 3rd, Roleton 4th.

The Fire Works in the evening were not what was expected, but this owing to no fault of the committee. Large crowds lined the river bank to witness the pyrotechnic empire is this day sent forth the streams of loyal life, pulsating through the world; in the great Dominion of Canada, in the islands of the West Indies, in British Guiana and Park, H. E. Gallagher. Two classes were trians, ladies and gentlemen. There were in the far off Australian lands, in the glowing E. Burnham, George McNally and Daniel Dr Colter, Mrs Maxstead, Abraham Clark, islands of the Pacific, in the great dependen Ulark, W S Saunders, Jas Watts, R B islands of the Pacific, in the great dependen the dependent of the Pacific, in the North Atlantic, in Gambers, Dr. Colter, Mrs Maxstead, Abraham Clark, islands of the Pacific, in the great dependent ter and Thomas Boyer.

Connell, J. Johnston, G L. Holvoke, H. Tilley, but and Sierra Leone on the Western Coast

•	momore, and resides bearies, amore,
n-	ter and Thomas Boyer.
st	Summary.
in	2 30 Class.
y-	Dandy Lumps 2 1	1
OL	Earl Dufferin 1 2	2
is	Amberline 3 4	3
ty	John A 4 3	4
ns	Time-2,33, 2.31, 2 33, 2 35.
8.	2.50 Olass.
D,	Annie T 1	1
ur	Ben P 5	2
er	Vanua	3
g	Toner P	6
at	Venthinne 3	4
ne	Topsy R	5
ls	Time—2.83, 2.38, 2.38.
TA	11110-2.00, 2.00, 2.00.

The friends from Houlton turned universal chorus of a nation's gratitude and body of men, they wear a very neat uniform, mated that at least 5,000 strangers were general preparations being made on Friday and Saturday for the decoration of the places of business and private residences gave assurance that Woodstock intended to do "her-limited crowd imaginable; very little drinking; no profanity; no fighting; past when, on the twenty-fourth day of May 1819, Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of Kent, gave birth to the then Princess, and trimmed, hauled by two fine horses. Sock-onesitt Hose Co. No. 2 Houlton, 200 No. 2 Houlton, 20 the Polymorphian parade; to Sandy McRae for the most dilapidated rig. Very tastefully decorated and eplendidly lighted was the barber shop of James Mc-Carten, over Dickinson's store; over 60 lights williams and Jack Tucker were excellent as also were the duets by Messrs. Jimmerson and Howson.

In the Norombega. The Miles Ideal Stock Co. opened an en-

The company will present Michael Strothe extremist agony, awakes to life and health.

The speciation of the speciation williams and Jack Tucker were excellent as also were the duets by Messrs. Jimmerson and Howson.

The company will present Michael Strogoff, Blacksmith's Daughter, All a Mistake, Rosedale and The Boy Hero during the week,

The Day at Florenceville.

POOK COPY

The celebration of the 22nd, at East Florat an early hour there was a continuous pro- ily expressed the greatest delight and satiscoming from all directions on the East side of lent health.

The trading village centres had evidently uspended business, leaving their citizens at liberty to pay their respects to the Queen stable, yard and other available space was count was not exhausted. A conservative estimate put the number of visitors at 4.000 tent to judge, ran the number up to seven. eight and even ten thousands. However, it Was the biggest gathering that ever took in his new privy councillor uniform, with place in the county, at all events outside of Woodstock, by all odds.

Canada's premier was an imposing figure in his new privy councillor uniform, with place in the county, at all events outside of Woodstock, by all odds.

Canada's premier was an imposing figure in his new privy councillor uniform, with gold lace in abundance and a cocked hat.

Canada's premier was an imposing figure in his new privy councillor uniform, with gold lace in abundance and a cocked hat.

Canada's premier was an imposing figure

Welcome to Florenceville."

The Managing committee was Frank B Smith, chairman; S R Boyer, Ward Kil-

Banks and Scott Darkis; these were mounted. cathedral services in different parts of the The Hartland band led the parade proces- country ion, while, at another part of the same, was S Hamilton. The Queen was represented by of Parnell. too, in a leading place, was a party of equestrians. ladies and gentlemen. There were in From my heart I thank my beloved people. this parade about 100 teams. The Polymor- May God bless them. phian display was unique, of course extravagant, well arranged and striking. There was displayed some old time relics—a flail threshing floor and a fanning mill. This event passed off with great satisfaction.

The next programmed event was aquatic. Mr Brittain, of Bristol, had his pretty little naptha launch, Victoria, handsomely decorated, plying on the river and there was a day. sharp contest between two bateaux manned respectively by a crew from the East and West side of the river; the former won the The next was the most pleasing event of the day, the Children's Procession, gotten up and managed by Major Hartley. This procession for ned on the grounds and marched across the bridge and marched into Florence- father, J O Cole, here. ville West; it was led by the Hartland band, the military, proceeded by J R Tompkins' two little sons in the uniform of the Boys Brigade who supported Eva Smith carry From every shore in this round globe are heard the echoes of England's cannon, and the martial music of varied bands swell the cocasion; the members are a fine looking the little girls; next there was a banner in scribed "We will serve our Queeu," borne by among the visitors in town Tuesday. 148 boys-or 366 children in all. Every child carried a banner of red and white with a portrait of the Queen upon it. This feature at the Carlisle, presented truly a beautiful sight as the little present. And, too, it was the most orderly of banners waving as they moved. On reand good natured crowd imaginable; very turning to the grounds, before being disband ed, the children sang the National Anthem. Major Hartley may well have felt proud of the success of his interesting venture. Next in order was the oration. Frank Smith being chairman who fittingly introduced the orator J. K. Flemming, who de livered himself in his usual fluent and enering much research and thought, brought to the house for a long time through illness, before his hearers the excellencies characteries able to drive out, much to the relief of his derful advances made in all the realms of science, arts, philanthropy and religion in the 60 years she had reigned. The oration deserved to be, and was, received with close attention and frequent applause. At its close, the Centreville band rendered God save In the meantime enjoyment was had by those so disposed at the several refreshment booths with which the grounds were bountifully supplied and at the dinner tables; rec- in the School house, Biggar Ridge, on

The westher somewhat cold and threaten years old and leaves a widow and four ing was on the whole favorable. The sec- children.

able facts in history and do honor to a Queen meeting last week, in London, in com-

Smith and McCain, Lee Raymond, Samuel Passing through Hartland one could see that there decorations were abundant; Black Knights, L. O. A., in the grand procession in St. John Tuesday, were: The Baird Company, Ltd

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

The Jubilee in England.

The public procession in London, England, enceville, is pronounced an immense success. on Tuesday, was an unqualified success. Her When the Sentinel representative arrived Majesty and the members of the Royal fam-

The Sun's special says :-As the colonial procession passed along the route the cheering from the bystanders was tremendous. There could be nothing more imposing as a spectacle of the worldwide em- 27 & 29 King St., pire, and nothing more enthusiastic than the 13 & 15 Market Square, The Royal Horse Guards, with Field Marshal Roberts, led the way. Then came Colonel Ivor Herbert and the Canadian Hussars and Dragoons. At once cries of "Bravo was of evergreen, springing from bases sufficiently large to contain booths, and grace gratified with your repeated recognition of created a great deal of interest and excitelessening, but never ceasing until the last of the white, black and bronzed faces of the colonial contingent were lost to sight. estimate put the number of visitors at 4,000 The Canadian cavalry opened the proces-and some, who declared themselves compe-sion, riding five abreast, Well set up and in all variety of uniforms, they presented a Canada's premier was an imposing figure > Lady Laurier was charmingly dressed and The village of East Florenceville was gay held in her hand a lovely bouquet of flowers. with bunting and other decorations. At the Both showed the keenest appreciation of the Eastern end of the bridge was an evergreen arch with a motto spanning it inscribed "39 frid raising his cocked hat again and again —97, God Save the Queen," and suspended midway across the Main road was a large ferent points along the route, and always banner inscribed, "Carleton & Victoria 37 to that cocked hat was off and on with the mos 97 Uelebration Queen's Jubilee, June 22nd gracious of bows. It was one lorg triumphan march, with a reception such as no col statesmen ever yet received in England. patrick, J R Hagerman, J H Jamieson, T J Murphy, James McIsaac and J R Tompkins, Sec-Treas.

>
> A remarkable, probably an unprecedented feature of the service at St. Paul's was the leading place given to the presidents of the lissenting bodies in a state service conducted The first event was the Bicycle, Farmers, by a state churchman. This was a fitting Trades and Polymorphian parade. The marshal was Chalmers Hartley, with aids James Conformists ministers assisted in Anglican BURTT & LEE,

In Ireland the Jubilee was celebrated with the Centreville band, both of which did enthusiam but in some of the cities counter themselves great credit. After the band denomontration were made. In Dublin a came a contingent of the Engineers in command of Sergt Major Lovely—these fired a royal salute of 21 volleys at noon; next came the cyclists some 14 male and female, their of illuminated houses. The city has not Wanted in exchange for meaning the windows of illuminated houses. Miss Semple occupying a barouche; in a car- The Governor General received the following from the Queen:

(Signed) VICTORIA R. and I. Gents Royal Purple Neckties, White and Col ored Shirts just opened at B. B. Manzer's.

Personal. Mr Neil Pratt. Carlisle, was in town Montown Tuesday.

W F Kertson, Esq, Grand Falls, was in Mrs Dr McCann, Bangor, is visiting her wilful act is a disgrace felt by the com-

G A Taylor, of the Merchants' Bank, is at Halifax, on vacation, and Tuesday at the Carlisle. Mr J Bloodsworth, Upper Kent, made the SENTINEL a pleasant call last week. S L Somerville and wife, of Houlton, were in '97, and V. R. I.

H P Wetmore, Halifax; A Elder, Toronto and Joseph Taylor, Montreal, spent Sunday O A Smith, of the Vaughan House, Cari-

O A O Smith, Caribou; Charles O'Connor, Fredericton, and Irvine Dibblee, Fort Fair field, were in town Tuesday assisting the W Forrester McLean, who has been confined

The Wilmot Parish S. S. Convention meets at Bloomfield on the 15th July Two services, at 2 and 7 p. m. Aberdeen S. S. Convention will meet Oliff, prize a knife.

And here we had to leave for the train.

And here we had to leave for the train.

Racey, Manager Merchants' Bank, had

Henry Hoben, for many years the very popular conductor on the Gibson branch, died of heart failure on the 21st, at Swan Creek, Sunbury Co. He was 55

Miles Moore had his foot quite badly crushed on Saturday, by having it caught Crackers, Torpedoes, be remembered with satisfaction.

The receipts were large, but the liberal outlay in connection with the celebration such lay in connection with the celebration such seems a revolving wheel and pulley attached to the circular, in his mill. Dr. Hand attended him. Fortunately no Prize Gum, &c. bones were broken and Miles is hobbling

Ten thousand Free Masons in gorgeous regalia attended a great Masonic memoration of the Jubilee. Grand Master the Prince of Wales presided. £7000 was taken for admission fees, which goes to Masonic charities.

Repeat orders in Perrin's Kid Gloves, Collars, Cuffe, Shirt Waists, etc., just received at B. R. Manzar's.

Rev. J, C. Blakney, G. Chap.; David Hipwell, P. C. M.; A. F. Lockhart, G. D. C.; G. S. Wiggins, C. M. Carleton. The Beacon says :- Saint Andrews has At Woodstock, on the 16th inst., to the wife The S. A. Journal points out that this never looked lovelier than it does just of Dr. R. E. Guy Smith, a daughter. now, with its fields and its forests re- At Smyrna, Me, May 26th, to the wife Queen's ascension, the 75th anniversary of which will be the Diamond Jubilee. Splendent with rich verdure, the apple blossoms and the roses coloring the land-

says the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians T. Phillips, William E Feeley, sheriff of Monare wrought up over the new law which ticello, Me., and Sarah J. Grant of Caribou, Me are wrought up over the new law which goes into effect on July 1, relating to polygamy. After that time each of the polygamy. After that time each of the Vale, and Minnie Hagerman, of Maple Ridge, To Arrive This Week: than one wife will have to choose one of the two, three or five wives that he has and the cast-off wives must go back to their relatives. There are forty of these polygamists, and in all they have over months, 5 days, leaving a wife and two sons to

Mr. James Roberts, City Marshal, and father. Fredericton, was in town Friday last week, en route from Upper Kent, where he had been spending three weeks in an official capacity. He speaks in high terms of Deputy Sheriff Foster and constable A. G. McFarland, who were his NOTICE, from trusting my son, Guy B. official assistants. Mr. Roberts was loud in his praises of the kind and generous

Tupper, as I will pay no debts of his contracting, no will I collect any of his wages, MRS. CHARLES TUPPER. in his praises of the kind and generous people, judged either from a business or at once.
social standpoint.

Woods

MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON,

cession of teams crossing the bridge and faction. The Queen appeared to be in excel- MILLINERY, FURNITURE, CARPETS and OILCLOTHS, CLOTHS AND TAILORS' TRIMMINGS, LUMBERMEN'S OUTFITS.

CANADIAN STAPLES, de. Le. The Most Complete Wholesale Dry Goods Establishment in Canada,

ST. JOHN, N. B. London (G. B.) Branch: -2 Milk St., E. C.

Greenhead Lime. Calcine Plaster, Portland Cement, Hair, Brick, Lead and Iron Pipe, Brandram's White Lead. Elephant Sherwin-Williams Paints.

NO. 22 KING STREET. Hon. Mr. Labillois, Minister of Agriculture, was elected by acclamation on

Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., has gone to Edgland. Hon. Geo. E. Foster leads Wanted in exchange for musical struments a few good heavy horses. prise you. Apply to C. R. Watson. Beside being made a Privy Councillor, Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. All hail to Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The Woodstock Parish S. S. Convention will be held at the Hay Meeting

Every school in the parish is expected to present a full statistical report. Some vandals, on Saturday night last, destroyed the very fine garden and pot flower plants in front of W. B. Belyea's Miss Maud McKeown, St John, is visiting dwelling. Some of them were very choice and highly prized by the owner. Such a

The Post Master has received a suply of the new Jubilee stamps of the de-Mrs J E Stewart. Andover, spent Monday ply of the new Jubilee stamps of the de-nominations 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8 and 10 cents. Excursion Return Tickets will be issued They are quite pretty, each of a distinctive color, and bear the impress of the diver, North American eagle, osley or Joseph Straton, St John, J W Burnington, fisher, victron, cormerant, green headed Niagara Falls, and James F Watson, Boston, goosander, and many other birds of rare species. Also many curios from India. and a strainer from the mouth of a whale upposed to be two thousand years old Proceeds of the Museum was for Home and Foreign Missions.

One of the great attractions at East Florenceville on the 22nd, was Mrs. A. D. Hartley's Museum, over her millinery store, where were to be found a sea lion, bou, and Fred G Kerr, of Oaribou, registered porcupine or devil fish, great northern at the Carlisle, Monday.

Licenses, keeps Wedding Rings of every size, 14 and 18 karst, guaranteed as stamped U. S. assay: Hay's Block, Main street.

There was one more race to be competed.
The programme provided for the evening a concert by the Hartland band and a display dropped dead from his horse. Heart trouble was the cause.

There was one more race to be competed.

Heart Heber for more race to be competed.

Heart trouble was the cause. Chinese Lanterns, Flags, have ever attempted to show. Do not fail to ask to see them.

BIRTHS.

and Minnie A. Grant, of Canterbury, York Co. A Perry, Oklahoma dispatch, June 17, At Woodstock, on the 16th June, by Rev. C.

DIED

Hew Advertisements

treatment received at the hands of the June 21, 1897.—1i pd-26. Beschwood, C. C. people of Upper Kent. In all his tra-vels he had never found a finer lot of WANTED An experienced Hotel Girl, at the Carlisle Hotel, Apply C. J. TABOR,

Woodstock June 24, 1897. -26.

ONE WEEK, Commencing

With Brilliant Specialty Artists.

Mesers. HOWSON and JIMERSON, the mod

DOMINION DAY.

Queen's likeness as it was in '37 and is Tickets are not good for going after date of sue and are good for continuous journey only, D. POTTINGER, General Manage 21st June 1897, CHEAP EXCURSIONS

July 5 and July 19 only, good for return with in 60 days at the following low rates, viz : -TO-THE WINNIPEG EXHIBITION will be held

Further particulars of your nearest Ticket Agent or of D. P. A., C. P. R., St, John, N. B. Passr. Traffic Manager, Dist. Paser. A (Sunday excepted) as follows: Will Leave St. John.

Banners,

Buffet Sleeping Cars for Montreal, Levis, St.

John and Halifax will be attached to trains leaving St. John at 22.30 o'clock and Halifax at 20.00 o'clock. Trains will Arrive at St. John. Accommodation from Sydney, Halifax and Moncton, (Monday excepted), -Express from Montreal and Quebec (Monday excepted), Express from Sussex,
Accommodation from Point du Chene,

Is the Finest and Best Assorted we leave the Intercolonial Railway are between Halifax and Montreal via Levis, are lighted by electricity. All Trains are run by Eastern Standard Time. D. POTTINGER, General Manager

For the Queen's Jubilee Celebration, 22nd inst.-

FLAGS, CANDLES, ETC.,

FIREWORKS AND

CRACKERS.

GARDEN BROS., DRUGGISTS. ESTABLISHED 1877.

39 & 41 Germain St.,

JUME 28. - USUAL MATINEES Presenting MONDAY Evening, the greater

Or Saved from the See The Favorites, EVA WILLIAMS and JACK TUUKER, specially engaged direct from Ke House, Lower Woodstock, on Thursday, The best artists in their line and a show July 8. Two sessions, at 2 and 7 p. m. Evening Prices—15, 25, 35 lip 26.

CANADIAN NORTHWEST

ECOND Class Return Tickets on sale June 2

ON and after Monday, the 21st June, 1897, the Trains of this Railway will run dails

Express for Rothesay, Express for Quebec, Montreal, Halifax and Express from Halifax, Pictou and Campbell-

We have laid in a large and the whole will be sold $200,00 Assortment of Woodstock, June 17, 1897.

Proprieto r.