Upper Kent Items.

April 27,

The snow is all gone and 'twi'll soon be good wheeling.

Most of our young men have gone stream driving. Come, cheer up girls, every cloud has a silver lining.

Mrs B Murphy and daughter, Andover, spent Easter with her aunt, Mrs Damarius Squires.

Our Sabbath school is in good standing.

Our day school is taught by Miss Jennie Squires of this place.

Since a certain young man went west, we have had no writing on the blackboard between school hours. Which number drew the bicycle?

Mr Medley Millar, who has been visiting his home in Upper Kent, returned to Fredericton on Wednesday last.

Quite a washout on the railroad of this place on the 17th. Since the track was made complete the engine stops for neither cattle or sheep.

Our new miller is as brisk as a bee; he grinds all day and never drinks tea.

Bob has gone to parts unknown, perhaps he'll return at the full of the moon.

April 21

We are not dead yet, although we have not been heard from for a long time; but spring has come and awakened us from our deep winter's sleep and we are now on the alert.

The water has rendered the roads almost impassible and to night, reports come here that the bridge at Florenceville is in a "shaky condition." The water is within five feet of the covering now, and is still rising fast.

Anson Margison has returned home from Fredericton; where he has been attending Military School during the past months. During his absence he has added Sergeant to his name, and the public will henceforth know him as Sergt A A H Margison.

S R Barnon, accompanied by a few others, starts to-morrow for the stream drive.

Miss Hattie B Everett has recently left this neighborhood and retired to her future home at Williamstown. We are sorry to lose her from our circle; but, listen, friends! don't you hear wedding bells?

Miss Alande Buchanan has returned home after an absence of some months.

Miss Clara Williams is visiting her aunt, Mrs Leonard Margison.

The engagement is announced of the adopted daughter of one of our most prominent farmers to a worthy citizen of Lower Knoxford.

Mr Wilbur Smith of Monticello is attending school here.

Well, now, if my call has been short I will go, but I will come again. Good night.

AUNT POLLY.

A Difficult Problem Satisfactorily Solved.

In the past the ladies have had thousands of dollars worth of valuable goods ruined through the use of inferior and adulterated dyes prepared for home dyeing. The greatest loss that we can point to is in the coloring of mixed goods—fabrics composed of cotton and wool, cotton and silk, and silk and wool.

The manufacturers of Diamond Dyes put up special dyes for the coloring of all mixed goods, giving colors that are fast to soap and sunlight. Diamond Dyes for mixed goods are the only reliable dyes in the world, and are all guaranteed to do perfect work.

Every druggist and dealer of any standing in Canada can supply you with Diamond Dyes for mixed goods. Do not accept imitations or substitutes; compel your dealer to give you the Diamond.

Riley Brook (Tobique) Items.

April 20—Concert passed off very fine; good attendance and good attention. Programme as follows: Organ prelude, Sweet by and by in variation; chorus, At the Dawning, by Mrs S Hayden, Mrs J Horne, alto, Mrs W Tapley, Mrs E P Rose, Miss J Stevenson and Mr H A Burtt, bass; solo by Mrs J Horne, Rabonia oh my Master; recitation by Justice Ferguson, In the Early Morning; chorus, Christ arose; duet by Mrs Horne and Mrs Hayden, Where are those that are Robed in White; chorus by four little girls, Little Lights; Violen Solo by Mrs Horne, Safe in the Arms of Jesus; duet by Mrs Tapley and Mrs Horne, Sweet Peace; reading, The Last Hymn, by Mrs E Gaunce; Organist Solo and Chorus, Rejoice; Violin Solo by Mrs Horne, Over Toere; Solo and Chorus by four little girls, Jesus Christ our Saviour; Solo and chorus, Victory is Won; closing chorus, God Bless You; Address by Chairman, Mr H G Howard.

21—Order of the day men coming in droves to the head waters of the Tobique. Cauliked boots makes the landladies frown.

Friend Tapley has his mill nearly fitted up, he will soon be stocking up the boards. No doubt he will have sale for all he can saw, as there are quite a few buildings going up this spring.

J Stevenson has put up a new house this Spring and moved his family into it last week.

A family moved from Munioc to Nictaux two weeks ago, Mr Wm Grant, wife and children. We are glad to welcome them to our end of the Tobique.

Mr S Hayden raised a fine barn to-day. Mr J J Hale and clerk, Capt Perkins, arrived to day with a crowd of men for the stream.

Peddlers are quite scarce for the past two weeks; Mr J Griffith made his farewell visit on runners for this Spring on the 20th; he must have had hard sledding ere he reached his home. The Ministers, likewise, have been very scarce; our prayer meetings here continue with very good attendance.

25—54 men for Mr McNair here to-night, commanded by J Kenney; they make the cooks hustle when they come and after they are gone cleaning up the dust.

H G Howard and some of our Riley Brook boys left here this morning for Mr Esty's drive on Two Brooks. Some one's eyes look moist.

April 26th.

Just now the weather is all that could be desired. The roads are in good condition; on Sunday we had a bicycle out, the first of the season.

There is a great deal of illness in the village and the doctor is kept pretty busy.

There is a Court of Foresters established here with a goodly number of the leading citizens enrolled in its membership.

Last week Mr H O Sharp sent about a hundred men up stream to begin driving, and Mr F Moore went up with about two hundred men about ten days ago, to begin operations on his drive. The water is at a good pitch and they expect a quick route.

We were very sorry to hear of the sad death of Rev T L Williams.

Rev F H Osgood arrived to-day from a well earned vacation of two weeks duration. While absent the Rev gentleman attended the annual conference which convened, we believe, at Bangor.

Maple sugar is selling in the village at ten cents a pound and maple syrup at one dollar per gallon. Granulated sugar, sixteen pounds for a dollar; flour, best grades, is sold at six dollars per barrel.

Failure Impossible

When Nerviline—nerve pain cure—is applied. It matters not of how long standing, its penetrating and pain subduing power is such that relief is instantaneous. Nerviline is a nerve pain cure. This statement expresses all. Try it and be convinced.

Help

Is needed by poor, tired mothers, overworked and burdened with care, debilitated and run down because of poor, thin and impoverished blood. Help is needed by the nervous sufferer, the men and women tortured with rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, scrofula, catarrh. Help

Comes Quickly

When Hood's Sarsaparilla begins to enrich, purify and vitalize the blood, and sends it in a healing, nourishing, invigorating stream to the nerves, muscles and organs of the body. Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the weak and broken down system, and cures all blood diseases, because British Press Opinions.

The press of Great Britain shows remarkable unanimity in their favorable regard of our new Tariff, which is high complimentary to the Liberal Government. We make a few quotations.

The Pall Mall says: The Conservatives talked about preferential duties and did nothing. Now, Mr. Fielding plays a trump card with decision.

The London Globe—It is difficult to overestimate the importance of the news. The Canadian tariff will not improbably prove a prelude to the realization of the hitherto unattainable ideal of free trade within the empire with protection against the world.

The Manchester Guardian says: "The new tariff is a remarkable event. It gives up the attempt at commercial union with the United States, and shatters the dreams of Mr. Goldwin Smith."

The Newcastle Chronicle states that Canada's tariff is an answer to McKinley. It adds that free traders are naturally disappointed that circumstances prevented the Canadian government going further; but they have taken an important step towards the desired goal.

A special article in the Times says: "If every British colony should follow suit and the day comes when free trade exists from one frontier of the empire to the other, it will be a source of mutual satisfaction to recall the circumstances of the first step in the initiation of the policy."

The Morning Post states that the Canadian tariff marks the independence of Canadian public opinion by casting aside the imitation of American fiscal policy which the Conservatives so long tolerated. It must necessarily draw closer and make more intimate the relations between Canada and the mother country.

The Star's London cable says: "An excellent report of Mr Fielding's budget report, occupying a column in the Times, has set everyone talking of Canada's pro-British tariff departure."

The St. James Gazette calls it a great example from Canada. The Globe says it is Canada's thanks offering. The Pall Mall Gazette sees in it Canada's spirited reply to the Dingley bill. "The Canadian Liberals have," it says, "found the Conservatives bathing and gone in with their clothes."

The Times says editorially to-day: "The presentation of the Canadian tariff is beyond the most remarkable step yet made towards fiscal federation in the British empire. We much regret to see the attitude Mr Foster has taken towards it."
