Mrs. Myron (visiting boarding-house lady)—My dear, you look positively distressed. Are you in trouble?'

Mrs. Brown—Oh, the awfulest thing has happened! Perhaps you remember Mr. Morrissy who used to board here for sixteen dollars a week.

Mrs Myron—Yes. You said he was such a comfort to you. He didn't have but two or three teeth left. if I remember correctly. Ate hardly anything. Didn't cost any more to keep than a kitten.'

Mrs. Brown—That's the identical party Oh, he's a rascal! He came back the day before yesterday and I let him have board at $8 a week, and now I find he's got a new set of false teeth and eats like a horse.

'I wonder,' he said musingly, 'why it is that girls wear bloomers.'

'I know,' yelled her small brother.

'Willie!' she exclaimed, half threateningly and half pleadingly.

'Why?' asked the caller with evident amusement.

'Cause they won't admit they're old enough to get into long pants, answered Willie.'

'Wellington,' said Napoleon, meeting his old-time adversary on the street, 'I'll run you a mile for a shilling.'

'Thanks, old chap,' returned the duke, 'but I don't care to. I always was behind when it came to a run.'

Why buy imitations of Doubtful merit when the Genuine can be purchased as easily?

Kitty (spiritedly)—Why, the idea! I know lots and lots of secrets that I keep beautifully.

KIDNEY WAR.

How Insidiously it Wages, but how quick the Surrender, and how the Flag of Truce is Hurriedly Hoisted When That Great General, South American Kidney Cure, Turns his Guns on the Disease.

This is what James Sullivan, of Chatham, Ont, writes: "For years I was a great sufferer from Kidney Trouble. The disease became so acute that I was confined to the house and was greatly afflicted with Insomnia. I was persuaded, after using many other remedies without avail, to procure a bottle of South American Kidney Cure. I had relief almost from the first dose. I have persisted in its use and, after using six bottles, I am well and strong again. I can work fourteen hours out of twenty-four and feel very little, if any, fatigue. It is the best medicine I have ever used."
