PEOPLE GETTING OLD.

As age advances, vitality retreats. Old people find themselves tired, listless, dyspeptic and lacking in strength. They lose interest in the active affairs of life, and may either become chronic complainers, burdening their friends, or they may, by using Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills be made bright, cheery, happy and healthy, as witness the following interesting example. The words of those who have lived many years carry wisdom with them. Why not profit by them?

WISE WORDS.

Nothing does a right-thinking man more good than helping his neighbors, especially the sick and weary. In recommending Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, and helping to bring them before the public, I feel that I am truly helping my neighbors. Both my wife and myself have used these Pills and derived great benefit from them. We are getting along in years, and like many others feel the need of a tonic and strengthening medicine. My blood was thin and impoverished, and my wife was miserable with general debility, brought on by dyspepsia. We used many kinds of medicine, but nothing did so much good as the Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills.

Yours very truly,
Signed, MR. & MRS. CLARK, Victoria St., Glencoe, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents per box, 5 boxes for $2.00, at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria St., Toronto. Book of information free.

Of Interest to Importers.

A memorandum in connection with the importation of goods under the preferential tariff has been received by the Collectors of Customs The following two sections will be of interest to importers :

Every invoice of goods imported into Canada shall be certified in writing as correct by the person, firm or corporation selling or consigning the goods, and shall truly show the whole and actual value of the goods in the currency of the country whence the goods have been exported directly to Canada, and the quantity and description of such goods, and the marks and numbers on the packages, in such a manner as to indicate truly the quantities and values of the articles compressed in each exportation package, all of which packages shall be legally marked and numbered on the outside when of such a character as to enable such marks and numbers to be placed thereon.

If invoices are made out at lower prices for goods exported directly to Canada than the fair market value at the same time and place for such goods when sold for home consumption in the country whence exported, in all such cases the invoices are also to show clearly, in a special column, or by an addition thereto, such fair market values as aforesaid for the goods described therein.

Honest Help Free to Weak Men.

THE CARLETON SENTINEL is authorized to state by Rev A H Macfarlane, Franktown, Ontario, that any man who is suffering from troubles resulting from overwork, excess or abuse, such as nervous debility, lost vigor, unnatural losses, lack of development, etc, can write to him in strict confidence and be instructed free of charge how to be thoroughly cured.

Knowing, to his sorrow, that so many sufferers are being imposed upon by unscrupulous quacks, this clergyman considers it his duty to give his fellow-men the benefit of his experience and assist them to a cure. Having nothing to sell, he asks for no money Any man who sends for his advice, and follows it, can rely upon being cured. Of course only those actually needing help are expected to apply, enclosing a stamp.

Address as above and refer to THE CARLETON SENTINEL

Mark Twain on England and America.

Mark Twain in a letter to the U S consul at Leipsic, declining for urgent reasons an invitation to the celebration of July 4th, says : This one marks the burial of the estrangement which has existed so long and so perniciously between England and America, a welcome condition of things, which, if wisely nursed and made permanent, can be of inestimable value to both nations and incidentally to the world.

In reverence for liberty, in humanitarian and civilizing impulses, and in other great things of the heart and the spirit the two nations are kindred as well as in blood, and friendly relations between them mean the forward march of the human race. That old animosity is buried. Let us hope it will stay buried, and also hope that for centuries to come this august funeral will still continue to be celebrated at our Fourth, and that meantime any man who tries to dig up that corpse will promptly be put in condition to take its place.

Miscellaneous.

A wealthy widow was about to marry a widower whose sole possession consisted of a family of small children.

On the day set apart for the happy event a friend of the prospective groom met one of his children a little girl of six years, and to see what she would say he accosted her with :

'Where are you going, Mamie, all dressed up so fine?

'I'm going to a wedding,' she said proudly.

'Whose wedding?' was his next query.

'Mrs Noble's,' replied she.

'And who is Mrs Noble going to marry?'

'Why,' said she in an astonished tone, don't you know. She's going to marry us!'

Johnnie, a bright boy of six, while being dressed for school observing his little overcoat much the worse for wear, and having more mended places than he admired, turned to his mother and asked her :—

'Mother, is father rich?'

'Yes, very rich, Johnnie. He's worth two millions and a half.'

'How, mother?'

'Oh, he values you at one million, me at a million, and the baby at half a million.'

Johnnie, after thinking a moment, said, 'Mother, hadn't you better tell father to sell the baby and buy us some clothes?'

Lionel Brough tells a story of an old country sexton who, in showing visitors round the churchyard, used to stop at one particular tombstone and say, 'This 'ere is the tomb of Tummas 'Ooper and 'is 11 woives.'

On one occasion a lady said, 'Eleven! Dear me! That's rather a lot, isn't it?'

The old man looked at her gravely and then replied, 'Well, mum, yer see, it war an' 'obby of his'n.'

Young Dovelack—But we love one another, sir. What more is wanted?

Father (sarcastic)—Oh, nothing, of course! I had some old fashioned notion about a chair and a table, or even a dwelling of some sort, but no doubt you know best.

'You ought to be ashamed of yourself to use poisoned arrows!' exclaimed the philanthropist.

'White men never do such thing?' queried the Indian.

'Never,' was the proud response. 'We white men lay traps for our enemies and kill them by the hundred with dynamite.'

He says he ain't afraid of War, 'cos he's been married 15 years, and if he ain't used to it by this time, he orter be. He—There are at least a dozen women who would be glad to get me if you were to die.

A Marvellous Statement—Relief from One Dose.

Mr. E. W. Sherman, proprietor of the Sherman House, Morrisburg, Ont is known by thousands of Canadians, hence the following statement from Mr. Sherman will be read with great interest and pleasure. "I have been cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing in three days. One bottle of SOUTH AMERICAN RHEUMATIC CURE performed this most remarkable cure. The effects of the first dose of South American Rheumatic Cure were truly wonderful. I have only taken one bottle of the remedy, and now haven't any sign of rheumatism in my system.
