The Liverpool correspondent of the Tin ber Trades Journal of March 24th says: *The spruc- market continues to be as firm as ever for future delivery, and these who hold stocks here and in the adjacent ports should be in a good position to make profi's. So far as we can gather from varied and reliable sources prices are likely to be main tained at about their present level for some time to come. The same old annuals are be ing trotted out for consumption. By sellers there is the same old mild winter which interferes with logging operations—we never knew an exception to this unless when there was so much snow that the men could not get into the woods. H-nce there is always going to be a short supply. But somehow a sufficient quantity always comes along. The discurbing factor is the unc-rtainty and flunctuation of the freight market.

"The parcels per liners from Halifax and St John, with irregular ep-cifications, are readily sold on the basis of £7 17s 7d, c i f. or perhaps half-a-crown under if more than usually ragged. The Day for Spring Rejoicings.

Easter the world over means, first all, the coming of light and the going of darkness. It means, too, happiness, a holiday, flowers, springtime gladness, in the hotel, it doesn't follow that you the putting away of the old and the putting on of the new. It means comfort, confidence, rejoicing, the fulfillment of a promise, the death of old doubts and the birth of new certainties. Indeed it means so many things and so much that if any Materials for Summer Gowns, Attractive Of Inestimable Value, which Positively Cures of us really understood them all life would never seem a bother or a burden any more. We would all be better men and women, and the world itself would be
