will extend the line to Centreville, Carleton County, and eventually down the St John Valley to Fredericton. This when completed will be a trunk line from St John to Levis, with several branch lines and will be one of the most important railways in the province, and will reach the most valuable timber lands and the most fertile agricultural sections of New Brunswick, Quebec and Maine. Malcolm and Ross are pushing the work upon the lines now under construction and soon much of the upriver section which has heretofore been comparatively isolated will have an efficient railway cervice .-
