Union Jack.

(Pub ished by request )

Yonder waves old England's banner,

Still recalling by-gone years,

As it waved o'er famous Creey,

And the battle Poictiers.

Since the days of Royal Alfred.

It has humbled haughty foes,

Still the ship that has it hoisted

Can through any ocean track

Give a shout for British freed m,

Trace its pat from land to land,

Where huge icebergs rock and roll,

Raise aloft the Union Jack.

Mark its course upon the ocean,

Ever guided in its mission

By a Providential hand.

Over stormy oceans wafted,

And the briny waves in fury

See our heroes bivouac,

Dash around each dreary pole,

While above them floats sublimely

England's ancient Union Jack.

Lat it greet the passing breeze

Still it braves the ocean's billows.

England's gallant, matchless, tar,

And away in tropic climates-

Raise aloft the Royal Standard,

Stands erect on stormy seas.

As it waved above our Nelson.

At the Nile's terrific combat,

And immortal Trafalgar.

To the mast he nai'ed his colors-

Midst a peal of British thunder,

On the plains of Abraham,

Signalled them for close attack

He displayed the Union Jack.

He encountered brave Montcalm

Loud above the roar of battle

By a charge of British bayonets,

Gallant Brook its folds expanded

Ere they reached the frowning summit,

But his comrades roused to vengeance.

Should the war cry then be sounded

We will guard the hallowed precincts

Where our Wolf and Brock was slain,

Were the Empire's flags insulted,

Dare to fight for British freedom-

We're no coward craven pack, To disgrace old England's standard,

And brave Scotia's sons are ready,

There Canadians dare to follow.

And will emulate their deeds-

Or desert the Union Jack.

As they did at Inkerman.

As of vere at Waterloo.

To defend the Union Jack.

Who'd refuse his life, his all,

Pass him by in dark disdain;

For their place is in the van-

To repel the fierce invasion,

And the loval men of Erin,

Round the cross of red and blue-

Round the battle flag will rally

Have in warefare ne'er been slack,

And now Canada is with them

In defence of British freedom

Who'd rejoice at Britain's fall?

Let him die a hated coward

Bury him at midnight black;

Who'd desert the Union Jack.

England, Scotland and brave Erin

Lives there still one British subject

If there is, then curse the traitor !

Let him bear while life is left him,

He deserves no home, no country,
