Heart's Sunshine. Oh, if only those who loves us Would but tell us while we live, And would not wait until life's jurney Ended is, before they give The smile we hungered after. Tender words we longed to hear, Which we listened for, but vainly

For many a weary year. There is much of pain and sorrow All must beer, and bear alo ie, Yet how he pful is the sunshine Of a cherry look and tone! How it brightens up life's pathway, And dispels the shadows grim,

And restores our shattered idols, Which we built in days now dim. Then bestow your sunshine freely ! Let it shine from out your eyes,

Let it speak in warm hand pressures Let it breathe in heartfelt eighs, Let it cheer the fainting spirit Of some poor brother in distress, Let it thrill our jarring voices Wi ha note of tenderness.

For in serving fellow mortals We best serve the Father, too, And in lightening their burdens Ours grow light and fade from view, And a sympathetic nature That vibrates to others' needs Is a bit of God's own sunshine Quickening to noble deeds.
