HON A. R. DICKY, Minister of Justice, in the late Conservative Government, was drowned on Tuesday, while bathing at Amherst Shore.

An Ottawa despatch, June 30, says the Customs revenue for the fiscal year ending this date shows an increase of $2,218,429 over the preceding year. The figures are: 1898-99, $25,548,808, as against $26,567,237 for 1899-1900. There was an increase for the present month of $183,613 over June, 1899.

Carleton Co. F. & D. Association.

A quarterly meeting of the Carleton county Farmers' and Dairywomen's Association was held in Scholey's Hall, Centerville, on Friday last week. The president, W. J. Webb, occupied the chair. Among those present were Daniel Irvine, H. C. Scholey, W. J. O'Neil, Jas. Good, George Malloy, Howells Corbett, James Watts, and others.

The minutes of previous meeting, on account of their absence, could not be submitted to the meeting.

The president stated that the first duty of the convention was to fill the vacancy in the secretary-treasurer office, created by the death of the late Samuel Watts.

On motion, James Good was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer.

On motion, the president and secretary were authorized and instructed to make a settlement with the estate of the late Samuel Watts with regard to money of the society in his hands; and also call in and pay all liabilities outstanding against the society.

An informal conversational discussion took place over several items of importance to agriculturists, as being worthy of consideration at the next meeting of the body, but no definite action was taken.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Lakeville, sometime about the middle of August, the exact date to be determined by the Executive.

Prizes and Diplomas.

The Grammar school closing exercises were held Thursday afternoon last week. The winners of prizes were: W. M. Connel, first medal for best essay on "The Topography of South Africa," Victor Bedell, second, and Harry McLaughlin, third.

The judges made favorable mention of Maude McAdam, Alice Fitzsimons and Daisy Hughes.

The W. W. Hay medal for proficiency in mathematics, in grade 10, was given to Matilda Winslow; 2nd, M. Stewart.

The chairman of the Trustees Board, H. Paxton Baird, in felicitous terms, presented diplomas to the following students: Harry McLaughlin, Victor Bedell, Alice Fitzsimons, Maude McAdam, Eva Jacques, Inez Buttrick, Faye Camber, Jesse Porter, Daisy Hughes—Arch Munro completed the course with exception of Greek.

Arthur Bailey had offered a prize to the scholar making the highest average in Miss Smith's school, and this was won by Ralph Allingham.

W. W. Hay had offered, in Mrs. Copley's department, a prize for the highest average, and a prize for the second best average; the former was won by Gertrude McManus, the latter by Evelyn Hammond.

In this same department the prize offered by D. McLeod Vines for best attendance, was secured by Burpee Hay.

There were prizes given in other departments, but we have not been able to get particulars.

Death of Mr. Duncan Ross.

The death occurred at the Western Hospital at five p. m. yesterday, after a brief illness, of Mr. Duncan Ross, of the railway contracting firm of Malcolm & Ross, Edmonton, N. B. Mr. Ross, who was fifty-five years of age, was a native of Antigonish, N. S. He had been in partnership with Mr. Thomas Macdonald for twenty years.

Mr. Ross was well known here, where he had many friends. [Ed. Ex.]

Death of an Aged Minister.

The death of Rev Thomas Connor took place at his residence here on Thursday evening last week, after a protracted illness. He was a native of Greenwich, Kings Co., and was in the 84th year of his age. He was one of the oldest Free Baptist ministers in the Province, having entered the ministry nearly forty years ago. For many years he has resided in Woodstock, universally respected as an earnest, consistent Christian. He was married three times, his surviving wife being a daughter of Rev T. S. Vanwart. He leaves one son, Frank R. Connor, in the Customs department, St. John, and two daughters, Zephania Connor of this town, a brother and E. J. Clarke, a nephew of the deceased. The funeral Saturday had a large attendance.

Summer School of Science.

The June Educational Review gives some interesting notes on the approaching session of the Summer School of Science at Bear River. The session will open July 28th and continue a series of fortnightly, until August 8th. The approaching session of the school is expected to be one of the largest in its history. Among those who are expected to be present is Dr. Drummond the distinguished Canadian poet.

Mrs. Zina Giberson, with two daughters of Whit Giberson, had a startling experience at Bath one afternoon last week. While picking berries they were attacked by a young bear. He attacked Mrs. Giberson by seizing her skirt, but with remarkable coolness and presence of mind she tore her skirt off, and leaving it for him to tear into shreds she and the rest of the party made their escape.

Happy Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Grant, Upper Southampton, was the scene of a festive occasion on last Wednesday, June 27. The event was the marriage of their eldest daughter Estella to Mr. Wayne Wright of Victoria county. Some one hundred and fifty invited friends assembled to witness the ceremony. At eight o'clock the bridegroom, supported by Rev Mr. Tompkins of Maine approached the altar. The bride, led by her father, was preceded by six bridesmaids carrying in their hands a chain of evergreens profusely bedecked with flowers. The altar was surrounded by a broad arch of evergreens interwoven by real flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev John Grant, assisted by the Rev Tompkins, uncle of the bride. At the close of the wedding service the guests sat down to a veritable feast, a profusion of viands so palatable one scarcely knew when to cease partaking. The couple had to be mistaken in this feature of the pleasant occasion as the cuisine was under the skillful management of Mrs. Gordon A. Grant. The presents tendered the bride were numerous and some of them costly. The happy couple left for their future home Sunday.

WATSON-ARMSTRONG.

A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Armstrong, Bairdville, Wednesday, June 30th, when her only daughter, "Blanche," was united in marriage with Frank H. Watson, of Clearville. The bride looked charming, being dressed in white muslin, trimmed with white satin ribbon and lace. She wore the usual bridal veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The groom was dressed in a suit of black, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The ceremony was performed by Rev H. B. Hillock, pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of about 70 guests, after which a sumptuous wedding supper was partaken of. The many congratulations and the large number of useful and beautiful presents speak of the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

Dominion Day Celebration at Andover.

Dominion Day was celebrated at Andover on Monday of this week, and a big crowd of people were in the village to see the sports. The stores, hotels and public buildings were all gaily decked with flags and bunting, and from the top of the court house towered a large and handsome flag, which arrived on Saturday night, a present from Hon John Coitigau.

In the morning a polymorphous procession, headed by the Progress band, paraded the streets. In the procession, which comprised both carriages and bicycles, were a number of handsome and grotesque representations. Mr. Perley's coach drawn by four horses was crowded with thirty-five ladies and gentlemen dressed in the costume of yesteryears; Queen's laundry of Woodstock was also represented in the parade.

After dinner the crowd all went to the field behind Perley's hotel where a large number of different contests were arranged for. Booths had been erected around the field where refreshments of all kinds could be procured. The ladies of the Baptist church provided dinner and tea. The following is the list of the winners in the different contests: 1st, Percy Murdoch, 2nd, C. Elliott, 3rd, C. Elliott, 4th, C. Elliott, 5th, C. Elliott, 6th, C. Elliott, 7th, C. Elliott, 8th, C.
