BRILLIANT WEDDING AT SOUTHAMPTON, OVER 300 INVITATIONS ISSUED.

in Southampton, at least, was the grand left over. wedding at "Hillside Villa," the handsome residence of Mr Charles W Dunham, on Wednesday the 10th ult. Three hundred and twenty-five invitations were issued to rich and poer alike (for "The jingling of the guinea" is not the passport to Mr Dunham's hospitality) and despite a steady down pour of rain a very large majority of the invited guests were present at the marriage festival of his daughter Beatrice. For weeks the best known in the culinary art had been toiling over pies and cakes and roasts of fowl, till the demand to cater to so great a company proved a mere pastime, and might have been several times repeated without relieving the loaded shelves of the well filled larders Precisely at three o'clock, the bride-a picture of health and beauty-entered the parlor with her father, and approached the pint of water. I was too nervous to centre, where the manly groom, Mr Edgar Allen Woodman, stood under a real canopy of flowers. She was dressed in cream cashmere prettily trimmed with chiffon and satin ribbon The bridal veil was taste. Though 76 years old, and quite fleshy, carried a beautiful bouquet which reflected able sewing, knitting, and reading begreat credit on Woodstock's leading con sides. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has servatory. She as attended by Miss Annie proved of inestimable value to me." Woodman, of St Stephen, white Mr David Munroe, of Lower Southampton, blushingly performed the honors of "best man". In a few moments the nuptial solemnities of the Presbyterian church were distinctly rehearsed by Ray Wm Ross, B A, of Dalhousie, which made the happy couple ore After congratulations, the tables on which the "marriage supper" was spread, were quickly filled by the happy throng. Seated by her husband at the first table, the bride, surrounded by the relatives of the two thoroughly satisfactory character of the Can jest and laughter of the general rank and and newspaper articles. file of the wedding party. WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent] Washington, Nov 2, 1900. Never before has public opinion in Washington, regardless of individual political preference, been so nearly unan imous at the close of a Presidential campaign, as to what the result will be, as it is at this time that President McKipley will be re-elected. This isn't because everybody wishes it that way, but because of the seemingly over-whelming evidence that it will be that way. A hotel clerk voiced this sentiment when he said "The talk of our guest is all one way-McKinley. In our little chats with them there seems to be but one sentiment, and that is of Republican success It doesn't make much difference from what State he comes, outside of the south, the traveling man, or business man, or tourist voices the sentiment. It would seem to me that this unanimity of opinion from the strangers within our gates hailing from all parts of the Union is of the greatest significance It was not so in 1896. He has written a book on "The Commercial Treaties of 1903." in which he declares there are but three great world powers-Great Britain, Russia and the U S. Men have been thrown into prison in Germany for saying less. He regards the U S as the most powerful rival of Germany's economic future, and in effect, if not actually, advices a union of European nations against us. medical men are now advising their patients to go long distances in the hope that change of air will do them good. A lot of solemn nonsense is being said, and written, about change of climate, and its influence on the patient. "Stick to low altitudes", says one. "Go the mountains", says another. How is a poor perplexed sufferer with sore lungs, to decide among these different authorities? The fact is, people die of consumption in all climates.

Do You Fear Heart Failure? No death comes so suddenly and unexpected ly as that caused by heart failure, but the trouble had its beginning; months or perhaps years before when the blood became thin and watery and the nerves exhausted. Gradually the waste has become more rapid than the procome diseased and finally some over exertion or nervous shock has caused the beating to cease and life to depart. Dr Chase's Nerve Food prevents heart failure and all similar diseases by creating new, rich blood and nerve force, and building up the system. 'I am willing to do anything,' said the applicant for work 'All right,' said the hard hearted merchant, please close the door behind you when you go out.

Keep Yourself Strong And you will ward off colds, pasumonis, fevers and other diseases. You need to have pure, rich blood and good digestion. Hood's Sarasparilla makes the blood rich and pure as no other medicine can do It tones the stomach, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system You will be wise to begin taking it now, for it will keep you strong and well.

I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his week's salary nearly all spent, threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I sent for your Tasteless Samaria Prescription, and put it in his coffee as directed next morning and watched and preved for the result and watched and prayed for the result At noon I gave him more and also at sup per. He never suspected a thing, and 1 then boldly kept right on giving it regularly, as I had discovered something A good way to pick out a wife, according to a Scotch saying, is to choose the woman you would like to keep you company through a month's rainy weather on an island.
