Weak-Minded Women. It is well understood that women are naturally "weak-minded." A strongminded man is honored, but a "strongminded woman" is looked upon as a hideous or ridiculous monstrosity. Men are made to be strong. robust, vigorous, sthletic; but women are expected to be "delicate," with slender waists, small hands, dainty feet, weak nerves and dvs-

And yet there is something curious about these weak-minded. A strongminded man of course does not "take sees of breach. It take is so, the remedy is, any stock in religion." He does not beneave them off. But if the short breath comes heve in the Bible, or in priests, churches, or any of that kind of nonsense. He is not to be fooled by anything of that kind. So while the weak-minded woman the States is assuming large proportions, and many heated discussions have taken place man takes a glass of whiskey.
